Proceedings of the Madras Government, Pension Department, 4th August 1873.

Read petition from Mr. G. W. LEWIS, Pensioned Supervisor, dated 25th June 1873.

ORDER THEREON, 4th August 1873, No. 388.

In G. O., dated 1st August 1872, No. 618, the Government remarked that Mr. Lewis, a late Supervisor, Public Works Department, was entitled, under the Rules, to a gratuity of Rupees 1,400, but owing to the exceptional circumstances of the case, they resolved to recommend him for a pension of one-third salary, viz., Rupees 66-10-8, and, pending orders, to pay the gratuity of Rupees 1,400 in monthly instalments of Rupees 66-10-8. The Secretary of State eventually sanctioned a pension of Rupees 50, and the Order was communicated to the Accountant-General on the 16th June 1873.

2. Mr. Lewis now states that there has been an over-payment of Rupees 165, which the Accountant-General proposes to retrench by stopping the pension in full, and begs that orders may be issued that the retrenchment be made by stoppages of Rupees 10 per mensem.

3. If this request be granted, the amount will be liquidated in seventeen months, and, even in the event of the applicant's death before the full retrenchment is made, he will not have drawn so much as the Rupees 1,400 to which he was entitled under the Rules.

4. His Excellency the Governor in Council considers the request to be reasonable, and resolves to direct that the retrenchment be made by stoppages of Rupees 10 per mensem as desired by Mr. Lewis.
