Spivey,

In reply to the questions on the other side, I beg to say, that the pay of the highest post in the applicants Department, viz, that of the New Manager, (who was formerly a junior in the office.) amounts at present only to the sum of Rs 35: per mensem. and that out of the Department I have no means of providing for him.

I am informed by the late Manager, as will be seen from his letter attached to his application for Pension, that, except casual leave, the only leave the applicant has obtained during the whole of his service has been six months privilege leave, which we as granted him on each occasion to enable him to recruit his health, I am unable to enter this in the Service Book and application for gratuity, as it has not been returned to me for that purpose.

I have the honor to be
 Your most ^{Sir} Obedient Servant;

W. S. Leland.

High Court, Madras 17th February 1871. T. A. Thanasaamy Chetty was appointed as Deputy Manager in the Crown Office on the 10th January 1866. He always evinced great care and diligence in the performance of duties entrusted to him. He seems desirous of availing himself of every opportunity of improving himself by study and practice, and I believe, that he would, if he had greater advantages, not fail in profiting by them. /s/ John D. Mayne Clerk of the Crown. Madras 1st March 1871. Thanasaamy Chetty discharged the duties of Deputy Manager of the Crown Office during the time I acted as Clerk of the Crown. He has always done his work thoroughly, and would I am convinced be found competent for a much higher post. He is the brother of Thimboos Chetty, the late Manager of the Legislative Department, who now holds a responsible position under the Government of Mysore, and whose career has been hitherto distinguished by great success. I believe Thanasaamy Chetty will prove an equally valuable and trustworthy public servant, if a fitting opportunity should offer, and I should be very glad to hear that he obtained an appointment more commensurate with his abilities and high character than that which he now holds. /s/ P. O'Sullivan High Court, Madras 25th February 1871. I hereby certify that T. A. Thanasaamy Chetty has been employed as Deputy Manager in the Crown Office from the 10th January 1866, and that since I have held office viz, from June 1867, he has always discharged his duties in a most satisfactory manner. I consider him to possess good abilities. He is deserving of a better post than the one he now holds. /s/ E. W. Shaw Clerk of the Crown. From what I have seen of T. A. Thanasaamy Chetty since my appointment as Clerk of the Crown I quite concur in the views as to his character and attainments expressed in the notes given him by Mr Mayne on the 17th February 1870 and by Mr P. O'Sullivan on the 1st March 1871. Madras June 4th 1873.		9th May 1866 3rd May 73	Transfer on promotion No objection of Setab	11th J. August 11th J. August
