Transmittal of the order passed by the Collector.

On Var Ramas application for pension.

It appears from the petitioner's own statement that owing to the reduction of the establishment in the Revenue department he entered the Police Force and was employed there for the last time. He should request the Superintendent of that department in the matter.

24th April 1873.

Dated 14th May 73.

States that he served the Gov^{ty} both in the Revenue & Police Departments 4.6 years of which 6 years in the Police Force for which he received a gratuity of Rs 36 only; says that he having come to understand that persons like himself who have served a longer period are eligible for pension he applied for the same to the Collector of the District who having directed to apply to the Police Supt^y under whom he last served he was informed by the latter officer that his case was

For Rs 46/3/3

duly considered & gratuity paid him & that nothing ^{but the} can be done for him.

Begs to inform that he will refund the gratuity & requests to recommend his case for pensionary aid.

A copy of the Collector's order & an endorsement made

The Petitioner having served 6 years in the Police Dept. and having been found unfit for further service by Medical Officer ~~was~~ granted a gratuity of Rupees 36 from the Superannuation Fund and discharged Government order on the subject dated 30 April 1868. No 124 Police Dept.

I do hereby certify captain Sub. Police

29 April 73

To

His Excellency the Right Honorable the Governor of Fort Saint George
Dated 9th July 1873.

Humbly Sheweth

That your Excellency's humble petitioner was employed both in the Revenue and Police departments, as formerly constituted, in the several capacities of peon, dastidar &c from the year 1821 to 1860, in which year he was discharged owing to the reduction of establishment.

That after a lapse of one or two years he was enlisted in the Police Force as constable N^o. 456, but that his services having been dispensed with on the 30th April 1868 on account of old age and infirmity, he has since that time been struggling hard for the necessaries of life

That although the total period of his service extends over 46 years, he only obtained a gratuity of 36 Rupees for his service in the Police Force, which he accepted, being ignorant of the fact that his having done so would now prove a bar to his claim for pension for the large amount of service he had rendered to Government in the Revenue department.

That during the Coob and Coorg insurrection he did

he did very good service to Government for which he was rewarded by many gentlemen with money and testimonials which are not forthcoming now, having been destroyed by fire, when his father-in-law's house, where they were deposited, was burnt down.

That on his laying before the Collector of the district his claims for pension for the service he counts in the Revenue department, that officer after the necessary inquiry passed the enclosed order from which it appears that his claims for pension should have been considered by the Police Authorities while submitting an application for gratuity on his behalf.

That from the endorsement of the Police Superintendent on the back of the Collector's order above referred to it would appear that all that could be done for him has been done by securing for him the grant of a gratuity and his case requires no more consideration on the part of the Police Authorities.

That although he objected to receive the gratuity he was informed that as the department in which he served previous to his being enrolled as a Police Constable, being distinct from that in which he was then employed, his accepting the gratuity would not deprive him of the benefit of pensionary allowance for his service in the Revenue department.

That on laying his claims before the Inspector General of Police, that officer has been pleased to pass an endorsement (which is herein enclosed) referring him to Government.

In conclusion he humbly begs to state that he is

13
he is prepared to refund the gratuity which he from a mistake of fact and ignorance of pension rules received in the Police department and most humbly begs that Your Excellency may be pleased to order a grant of pension adequate to his service to be made to him and thereby protect him from ruin.
