*Proceedings of the Madras Government, Pension Department,

Read the following papers :—

From the Clerk of the Crown, dated 8th July 1873.

„ Deputy Accountant-General, dated 21st July 1873, No. 209.

ORDER THEREON, 3rd September 1873, No. 455.

Mr. E. W. Shaw, late Deputy Clerk of the Crown, had been in Government service for a period of six years, four months, and twenty-nine days, when the appointment was abolished by G. O., dated 2nd May 1873, No. 692; but the Deputy Accountant-General points out that, of this service, only five years, eleven months, and twenty-one days qualify for pension, as for the first five months and eight days Mr. Shaw held an acting appointment only, and was eventually confirmed in a different post. The objection thus raised by the Deputy Accountant-General is valid, but, even after deducting this period, the qualifying service falls short of six years by nine days only; and, under the circumstances of the case, His Excellency the Governor in Council resolves to recommend to the Government of India that Mr. Shaw be allowed a gratuity of Rupees 1,050, to which he would have been entitled if he had completed the six years' qualifying service, and, in the meantime, to sanction the disbursement to Mr. Shaw of a gratuity of Rupees (875) eight hundred and seventy-five, to which sum he is entitled, under Sections 47 and 56 (a) of the Civil Pension Code, for his proved qualifying service of five years, eleven months, and twenty-one days.

Sanctioning the gratuity of Rupees 875 to Mr. E. W. Shaw, late Deputy Clerk of the Crown, and resolving that an application be made to the Government of India for the grant to him of an increased gratuity of Rupees 1,050, equal to six months' salary.

Man. He has been singularly unfortunate having been twice abolished as you will see in this Memorandum of Services.

I have a very high opinion of him ~~as~~ not only an efficient Officer but an upright honorable Man. His Father old

Daniel Shaw is an excellent man but badly provided for there being some flaw in his claim for a Pension for long service & he only received a bonus.

Our Government supported his claims but the Govt of India differed in opinion & he lost his chance.

His son the present

To
The Dep. Accountant General
To the Government of Madras.

Sir,

In reply to your questions upon the other side heresof, I beg to say, that upon calling upon Mr. Shaw for an explanation, he informs me, that his service of 5 months and 7 days as Assistant Registrar was reckoned by him as qualifying, in as much as he drew the full pay of the appointment and ~~he~~ ^{he} held the permanent appointment during that time, and that although he was not confirmed in that appointment he was permanently appointed Deputy Clerk of the Crown on ceasing to hold the office of Assistant Registrar; and therefore I presume thought he was entitled to count the period mentioned. Mr. Shaw further says, that if his service in that office is excluded he still has completed six years all but ten days, and that he trusts this will be taken into consideration, and that under the circumstances the last year of service will be allowed to count although not fully completed.

I may mention that this service took place long before my appointment as Clerk of the Crown Office, and not being in connection with that office but with that of the Registrar, I could have no personal knowledge in the matter, nor would the correspondence you mention be in my office.
