Proceedings of the Madras Government, Pension Department,
3rd September 1873.

Read the following papers:—

From the Director of Revenue Settlement, dated 7th April 1873, No. 705—105.
„ Officiating Deputy Accountant-General, dated 29th April 1873, No. 50.
To the Secretary to the Government of India, dated 12th July „ „ 356.
From „ „ „ 18th August „ „ 2363.

ORDER THEREON, 3rd September 1873, No. 459.

The present applicant for gratuity was holding a post in the Revenue Settlement Department on a monthly salary of Rupees 18, and obtained leave on forfeiture of full pay on the 28th April 1871. He never rejoined his post, and on the 1st October 1871 the pay of his locum tenens was reduced to Rupees 15.

2. On retiring applicant's qualifying service entitles him to an invalid gratuity not exceeding eight months' emoluments.

3. The term "emoluments," as used in Chapter XII., is defined by Section 66 (a) to mean "emoluments which the officer was receiving at the time of his retirement from the service."

4. The Deputy Accountant-General apparently interprets this to mean the emoluments attached to the officer's post at the time of his retirement from service, and certifies, accordingly, that he is entitled to an invalid gratuity not exceeding Rupees 120.

5. The Order reducing the pay of the post would not have affected the pay of the applicant if he had returned to duty, and this Government are of opinion that it would be fairer to interpret Section 66 (a) as meaning the emoluments which the officer was receiving when last in active service prior to retirement.

6. The Government of India having approved of this interpretation on a reference under the provisions of Section 75, the Governor in Council directs the disbursement to Kanchi Rama Row of an invalid gratuity of Rupees (144) one hundred and forty-four.

To

THE SECRETARY TO THE GOVERNMENT OF INDIA,
FINANCIAL DEPARTMENT.

SIR,

I am directed to submit the following case for the consideration of the Government of India, in accordance with the provisions of Section 75 of the Civil Pension Code.

2. The present applicant for gratuity was holding a post in the Revenue Settlement Department on a monthly salary of Rupees 18, and obtained leave on forfeiture of full pay on the 28th April 1871. He never rejoined his post, and on the 1st October 1871 the pay of his locum tenens was reduced to Rupees 15.

3. On retiring, applicant's qualifying service entitles him to an invalid gratuity not exceeding eight months' emoluments.

4. The term "emoluments," as used in Chapter XII., is defined by Section 66 (a) to mean "emoluments which the officer was receiving at the time of his retirement from the service."

5. The Deputy Accountant-General apparently interprets this to mean the emoluments attached to the officer's post at the time of his retirement from service, and certifies, accordingly, that he is entitled to an invalid gratuity not exceeding Rupees 120.

6. The order reducing the pay of the post would not have affected the pay of the applicant if he had returned to duty, and this Government are of opinion that it would be fairer to interpret Section 66 (a) as meaning the emoluments which the officer was receiving when last in active service prior to retirement.

7. Sanction is accordingly requested for the disbursement of a gratuity of Rupees 144, to which the applicant is entitled if the above interpretation be accepted.

Sir,

The application for a pension for classifier Kanchi Rama Row forwarded to you with my letter of the 12th December 1872 was returned by the Deputy Accountant General on the 20th January 1873 for rectification of a few omissions, for explanation of the delay in submitting it, and also for full explanation of the causes of the alleged degradation of the applicant from a salary of Rs 18 to one of Rs 15 per mensem. The Dy Accountant General also required that the Service Book of the applicant should be filled up and forwarded. All the requisitions of the Dy Accountant General have now been complied with save the submission of the Service Book and the explanation of the degradation. An enquiry has shown me that in the case of applicant there was no degradation at all and consequently the gratuity now to be recommended (being calculated on an average salary of Rs 18 per mensem) is in excess of that formerly recommended. It seems proper that the explanation should be forwarded through you. Mr Goodrich's order interpreted as degrading Mr. Hanchi Rama Row seems to have been misunderstood. Mr. Goodrich seems to have had no such intention. Hanchi Rama Row had been absent for a long time on leave with forfeiture of pay, when Mr Goodrich ordered that the salary of the man acting for him should be Rs 15. There is no doubt that Mr. Goodrich would have given H. Rama Row his full salary had he returned, and that the reduction of the salary was only to affect the acting incumbent of the post.

2. The application is again forwarded with a recommendation for a gratuity of Rs 180 instead of Rs 150 and with the Service list filled up.

The applicant having been on leave without salary, there has been no loss to Government through the delay in disposing of his application for pension

I William Smyth Ist Assistant Surgeon in Her Majesty's Indian Army do hereby Certify that C. Rama Row Classifier Revenue Settlement Salem has been 13 days under my treatment and 16 months on Sick Leave for Paralysis of the right arm and leg and that he is not likely to derive permanent benefit from further treatment or from change of air. He is in my opinion, unfit for further Service; and to the best of my judgment, such disqualification is not the result of intemperance or other irregular habits.

Most Respected Sir,

As directed in your honor's endorsement* dated the 10 Sept 1872 I appeared before Dr. Fox Assistant Surgeon Incharge of the Civil Dispensary of this place and the Medical Certificate, which he has been kindly pleased to give me, is herein enclosed. I enclose also a list showing the necessary particulars required for filling up the pension roll to be submitted to Government on my behalf.

At the same time I take this opportunity of submitting the following for your favourable consideration.

As shown in the above statement my service extends to a period of 13 years & upwards though unfortunately the precarious state of my health has prevented me from completing the prescribed period of service to make myself ^entitled at least 6 1/3rd pension.

In a new Department like the one in which I have all along served I have worked very hardly in the preparation of various statements and in performing other works ~~that~~ were entrusted to me. Besides this I had undergone much difficulty in having required to travel with the ~~Department~~ District after Districts wherever it moved. For all this the present Dy: Assistant J Venkata Hanumain will bear testimony. All ~~that~~ is required to entitle me to 1/3rd pension according to the strict letter of the rules is 2 or 3 years further service but I am sorry as I have already observed I am prevented from doing so. Still from the peculiar circumstances of my case as above described I humbly & earnestly ~~solicit~~ ~~that~~ your honor will be kind & pleased to intercede on my behalf and recommend as a special case for 1/3rd pension for which act of charity I shall always remember you with gratitude. Trusting ~~that~~ I may be favored with an favorable reply

Explanation

In reply to your memo dated 9th Instant I have the honor to state that K. Rama Row was not degraded at all. Mr. Goodrich's order, interpreted as degrading the applicant, seems to have been misunderstood. He appears to have had no such intention. K. Rama Row had been absent for a long time on leave with forfeiture of pay when Mr. Goodrich ordered that the salary of the man acting for him should be Rs 15. There is no doubt that Mr. Goodrich would have given K. Rama Row his full salary had he returned and ~~that~~ the reduction of the salary was only to affect the acting incumbent of the post.

2. Under the circumstances stated above it was considered desirable to submit a revised recommendation for pension through the Director of Revenue Settlement. This was accordingly done on the 22nd March 1873.

Explanation

1. The Dy Collector North Arcot, was addressed on the point of applicant's name not being traceable and he in reply states that as the services of K. Rama Row were of a temporary nature vide minutes of consultation of 12th January 1856 No 39 conveyed in Board's Proceedings d/24th Jany 56 No 215, his name was not shewn in the annual statement submitted by the Collector.

2. His name is included in the D. Statement for 1861 though the initial letter not given (see under Dy Director's office Establishment 8th april 1861. B. G. Bala-kistna Naidoo substitute Rama Row) It was then a permanent appointment and not acting though the original incumbent's name was therein retained.

3. With regard to the implied delay in the submission of the recommendation, the petitioner was long absent on leave and was not here when his application was made. His petition dated Vellore 4th August 72. was received on the 9th August and he was immediately required to send in original Takeeds showing his services. Petitioner in a reply dated 9th September 72. and received 21st Septr stated that there were no takeeds and they were lost. The Collector of North Arcot was thereon written to on the 24th Septr 1872 to verify the services of the petitioner in his Deptt and his reply was received on the 19th October in the circuit office. Then records were referred to and a roll was immediately prepared and sent to Director on the 14th November 1872 which was returned by him on the 17th December for certain corrections which were made and retransmitted to him on the 27th December. Hence there were no unnecessary delay.

4. The applicant had left the service before the introduction of the use of service Books and none was therefore forwarded. I now enclose the application in a printed form together with the enclosures.

CERTIFIED that (~~subject to the remarks below recorded~~) qualifying service in {~~inferior~~ / superior} grades has been duly proved for 8 years 2 months and 20 days; and that an invalid {~~pension~~ / gratuity} not exceeding Rs. 120 " " , is admissible under Section 56 (a) of the Civil Pension Code. The calculations have been duly verified.

It will be observed from the Dy Director's reply No — dated 23d Instant that tho' the pay of the post which the applicant filled appears from the pay bills and Audit Registers of this Office to have been reduced from 18 to 15 Rs on the 1st October 1871 it was not intended that the applicant should be affected but that it should apply to his locum tenens. The applicant received no his leave allowance whatever.

From the Director of Revenue Settlement.
Dated 7th April 1873 No 705/105
— Do — Offg Deputy Accountant General
Dated 29 April 1873 No 50.

Order thereon June 1873 No.

Cancelled by G. O. 3rd Sept 1873 No 459

The present applicant for gratuity was holding a post ~~with~~ of a monthly salary of Rs 18 and obtained leave on forfeiture of full pay. He never rejoined his post and on the 1st October 1871 the pay of his locum tenens was reduced to Rs 15.

On retiring, his qualifying service entitled him to an invalid gratuity not exceeding eight months emoluments.

Emoluments.

The term "emoluments" as used in Chapter XII. is defined by Section 66(a) to mean "emoluments which the Officer was receiving at the time of his retirement from the service".

It is evident that this definition cannot be applied literally to applicants case or he would receive nothing.

The Deputy Accountant General apparently interprets it to mean the emoluments attached to the applicants post at the time of his retirement from service, and certifies accordingly that he is entitled to an invalid gratuity not exceeding Rs 120.

In the opinion of Government it would be fairer to apply the spirit spirit of Clause 3 Section 66(b) directing the disregard of a period spent on leave without allowance in calculating average emoluments, and to interpret Section 66(a) as meaning the emoluments which the Officer was receiving when last in active service prior to retirement.

Under the circumstances His Excellency the Governor in Council is pleased under sections 49 and 56(a) of the Civil Pension Code, to grant to, Kanchi Rama Row late Classifier Revenue Settlement Office, Salem, for his qualifying superior service of 8 years 2 months and 20 days an invalid gratuity of Rs (144) one hundred and forty four.

Read the following letter Papers

From the Director of Revenue Settlement, dated 7th April 1873 705/105
Do. Offg Deputy Accountant General, dated 29th April 1873 No. 50
To, the Secretary to the Government of India dated 12th July 1873 No. 356
From ——— Do. ——— Do. ——— " 18th August " No. 2363

Order thereon 3rd September 1873 No. 459.

The present applicant for gratuity was holding a post in the Revenue Settlement Department on a monthly salary of Rs 18, and obtained leave on forfeiture of full pay on the 28th April 1871. He never rejoined his post, and on the 1st October 1871 the pay of his locum tenens was reduced to Rs 15..

On retiring, applicant's qualifying Service entitles him to an invalid gratuity not exceeding eight

eight months emoluments.

The term "emoluments" as used in Chapter XII, is defined by Section 66(a) to mean "emoluments which the Officer was receiving at the time of his retirement from the Service."

The Deputy Accountant General apparently interprets this to mean the emoluments attached to the Officer's post at the time of his retirement from Service, and certifies, accordingly, that he is entitled to an invalid gratuity not exceeding Rs 120.

The Order reducing the pay of the post would not have affected the pay of the applicant if he had returned to duty, and this Government are of opinion that it would be fairer to interpret Section 66(a) as meaning the emoluments which the the Officer was receiving when last in active Service, prior to retirement.

The Government of India having approved of this interpretation on a reference under the provisions of Section 75, the Governor in Council directs the disbursement Kanchi Rama Row of an invalid gratuity of Rs 144 One hundred and forty four.
