„ Accountant-General, „ 30th July 1873, No. 44.

ORDER THEREON, 3rd September 1873, No. 460.

The Deputy Accountant-General remarks that the applicant's service prior to the 11th November 1858 is vitiated by his dismissal on that date. His Excellency the Governor in Council, however, is of opinion that dismissal followed by re-appointment within eight days to a post on lower pay is virtually only suspension, and is pleased accordingly, under Section 63 (c) of the Civil Pension Code, to grant to Aiyalu Nayadu, late Peon, Deputy Collector's Office, Mannargudy, Tanjore District, an invalid pension of Rupees (3-8-0) three and Annas eight per mensem, payable from the 21st February 1873.

Proceedings of the Court of the Assistant Collector Lambaconum dated 25th September 1872

Prisoner Anathappa Petti was sent into Thamper in charge of Police, Constable Polandavelu on the morning of the 15th Instant. He was observed by beat Constable Panju Poo going along the road without hand Cuffs see with the orderly, a prow of the Smeel Cause Court and Prow Myel Vaidu.

Probably some bandies followed with friends of the Prisoner, a conversation was held at the Perumal Quil 4 miles out at which both the prows and the Constable Polanda-velu were present, after which the Prisoner and the Constable went on followed by one of the bandies only, while the others returned to Lambaconum.

Police Constable Polanda-velu has been reported to the Superintendent of Police, it has been ascertained that he received 30 Rs to bring the Prisoner into Thamper without hand Cuffs.

Re: C. P. 579/73.

in a bandy. The small Cause Court person who was concerned has been dismissed.

Ayela's story is that he accompanied his family who were going into Tanor some way along the road then he saw the Court person before him, then the Constable and the Prisoner passed him then he ran after them intending to send a letter by the Constable. He does not say why he did not send it by his people, then he met one Jagu Kodalicum, who advised him to post his letter, he took his advice and turned to return, then he again met Constable Kolundavulu and the prisoner, who he said had passed him before. How they got between him and Combacum again he does not say, being asked how he came to be standing by during the conversation at Parammal Kott, he said he only halted there to buy betel, which is unlikely as there is no betel shop there.

The story of the head Constable Panjura is plain. He saw the prisoner going along road without handcuffs, accompanied by Constable Kolundavulu and the 2 persons, he remonstrated with them saying they would get into trouble. The Constable put him off with excuses and they went on. He put off his uniform and slipped round by some plantain gardens and saw a conversation going on at Parammal Kott, between the Prisoner and some of his friends, who had come up as bandies, and saw Ayela's father was he says standing by, they then parted the orderly Constable Kolundavulu and the Prisoner going on to Tanor followed by an empty bandi (which they did not get into probably owing to one of the Scouts discovering the head Constable watching them) The prisoner returned to Combacum.

Best Constable Panjura has no reason to dispose falsely against any of the Culprits. He bears a high character.
If the facts are as he states, there can be no doubt of Ayela's father's complicity in this matter while his story is full of improbabilities I have no doubt of his guilt, but was unwilling to dismiss an old servant so I gave him plenty of time to consider intending to let him off easily if he told the truth, as however he persist in denying his guilt, I consider that he must be dismissed.

Order

Now Ajelu Saidu having been detected in abetting a Police Constable in taking money to convey a prisoner committed to take his trial before the session Court from one into another, in a bandy without handcuffs in a manner contrary to rule. is dismissed from the service

Appeal No. 31

Proceedings of the Collector of Tanjore dated 21st November 1872.

Appeal petition presented by Syalos Vaito late Malayat Mainargudi Deputy Collector's office.

Appellant was dismissed while attached to the Assistant Collector's office for aiding & abetting a Police Constable in receiving money to convey to Tanjore from Combalom a prisoner committed by the Assistant Magistrate, "without hand cuffs."

Read Order of the Assistant Magistrate.

The records were sent for, but it appears there are none although from the Order of Assistant Collector it is shown there was an oral examination.

There is thus nothing to prove what was the delinquency made out against the Appellant, he was not on duty at the time and there is nothing on record to show that he was in any way concerned in the charges made against the Police Constable, though he may have been been an eye witness.

But under all the circumstances and looking to the lengthened service of the Appellant, the undersigned, considers the punishment awarded unacceptably severe and directs the restoration of the Appellant from the rank of this order.
