Proceedings of the Madras Government, Pension Department,
6th August 1873.

Read the following papers :—

From the District Engineer, Chingleput, dated 16th December 1872.

„ Deputy Accountant-General, dated 23rd June 1873, No. 154.

ORDER THEREON, 6th August 1873, No. 389.

The Deputy Accountant-General certifies that Conjeveram Annamala Moodelly is admissible to a pension of Rupees 20-9-9, or one-third his average pay; but it appears that, in calculating his service, a period of years 9-9-27 has been omitted under Section 38 (b), notwithstanding the explanation in the record that a Maistry in those days did very much the same kind of work that a Taluq Overseer now does.

2. As pointed out in G.O., dated 4th July 1873, No. 337, Pension Department, service of this kind must be reckoned as in a superior grade, in which case applicant's service amounts to years 24-11-21, or only nine days short of the period which qualifies for a pension of half-pay; and, under the circumstances, His Excellency the Governor in Council resolves, in consideration of the very brief interval by which the applicant's service falls short of the period which would entitle him to half-pension, to submit his case for the favourable consideration of the Government of India under Section 75 of the Civil Pension Code, with a view to the grant of a pension of Rupees 30-14-7, equal to a moiety of his average salary for the last five years; and, pending the sanction of the Government of India to the above grant, to confer upon Conjeveram Annamala Moodelly an invalid pension of Rupees (20-9-9) twenty, Annas nine, and Pies nine per mensem, to which he is clearly entitled under Sections 49 and 56 (b), with effect from the 15th December 1872.

I am directed to transmit, for the favourable consideration and orders of the 6th August 1873, No. 389.

Government of India, the marginally-noted Proceedings, recommending the grant to Conjeveram Annamala Moodelly of an invalid pension of Rupees 30-14-7, equal to half his average salary, in lieu of a pension of Rupees 20-9-9, equal to one-third of his average salary, under the circumstances stated therein.
