

appears to have verbally directed the applicant to retire. There is nothing on record regarding the matter.

Appajiah resigned on the 15th February last. He was afterwards sent by the Collector's orders to the Zillah Surgeon who, however, refused to grant a certificate and wrote in reply asking what was the matter with the man. I was at the time on circuit, and when I came in, I had the applicant before me and examined him and considering him worn out and unfit for further service wrote again to the Zillah Surgeon who on Appajiah's appearing before him, which he did after some delay, granted him the requisite certificate.

5. No special orders degrading the applicant from the post of Revenue Inspector Inspector was issued by the Collector: a copy of the order published in the District Gazette is enclosed.

6. The Service Books of servants employed in this District not having been prepared when Appajiah retired, none referring to him is sent.

VIDE your Office application for Pension on behalf of Sukagerry Bootha Vanntha Appapiah.

The undersigned has the honor to request explanation on the following points:—

- points:—
1. Why was the applicant shown in the Service Statement as having drawn full pay of the 2^d class Inspector from 22 Febuary 71, while from Bill No. 3. for Febuary, paid in March, he appears to have drawn only moiety of 25 Rs. & moiety of his own pay 20 Rs.?
 2. Why was the Applicant named entered as Appaji Rao in the annual returns of 1 May 58 & 59, instead of Appaji as shown in the register? Which of the two names is the correct one?

Reply.

It will be observed from the enclosed translation of a Sakud to the Sahaidar of Sakud that Appajiah was appointed Revenue Inspector from 22nd February 1871, but as it was not received by the Sahaidar till 6th March, prior to which the Pay abstract had been despatched to the Huzoor, the applicant only drew half pay in February.

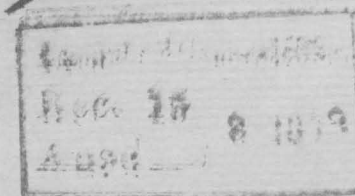

2. There are no copies in this Office of the English Annual Returns for 1856 and 1859, but in the Vernacular List of Officials for the latter year, the applicant's name is shown as Appajiah which is the correct termination for names amongst Karnata Brahmins. The use of

of the affix "Raw" has crept in owing to the former influence of the Mahratia tribe and men who are not at all entitled to the name in consequence often assume it.
