-ment ^{may} be furnished.

Reply

From the Office Copy of the Annual return for 1865 it appears that Gandham Virasami was peon of Duguragur = patam = If he was shown as measurer in the ^{Office} Copy sent to the Assistant General it must have been a clerical error.

Attested translations of the orders touching the applicants suspension & reinstatement are here with sent.

25th October 1872

In your docket No 70 of 1861 you brought to my know ledge after due inquiry the deceit played by some of the officials of the Port Police Division in mixing the spontaneous salt with genuine one in the heap No 16 of the 1269 Partis After making a personal inquiry into the matter, I had already suspended the officials therein implicated until further orders. With regard the part taken by the person after a careful ^{personal} of the records of the trial before the ^{Magistrate} I conclude that beyond ~~that~~ doubt they attempted to deceive the Government.

The Head of Magistrate acquitted them on the ground that it is probable that their enemies might have done it, with a view to involve them in danger. Even admitting this as probable the Government Shroff & the Subscribers are guilty of negligence since they failed to find out tricks on the next day where they uncovered the heap.

The Government Promam & the Rawa Kudiatore, Shroff, Comradisetti Subbaga, the Subscribers, Mohamed Raffreddeen and the from Guntham Virasami having been proved guilty of carelessness with respect to this case, they are suspended for the space of a year and at the expiration of the period of suspension, they should be appointed to places of reduced pay in some other divisions. The pears ~~the~~ Tummadisetti Lakshuiah, Sathara Paupiah, though it was not proved that they had any share in the matter before the Head of Magistrate, still I find reasons to dismiss them from the service, as they are not trust worthy characters.

As the Guaros Peer Ahamed and Chick Daria and the peon eyed Bandagi are of one and the same sect and religion and as it is very difficult to bring to light the tricks (in the sale of salt &c) which they might play in collusion, one of them Peer Ahamed is transferred to Iskapalli in lieu of Gantham Virasami whose period of suspension has expired. -
