Proceedings of the Madras Government, Marine Department,

16th January 1873.

No. 12. Read the following Proceedings of the Government of India in the Financial Department, dated Fort William, 11th December 1872, No. 4321 :—

Read extract from the Proceedings of Government in the Marine Department, No. 43, dated 23rd October 1872, and enclosures, regarding an application by Mr. E. Neale, an Officer of the late Indian Navy, who is now employed as Deputy Conservator and Registrar, River Indus, to be allowed to count his service in the Indian Navy towards a civil pension.

RESOLUTION.—Mr. Neale was one of the Officers discharged on the abolition of the Indian Navy in 1862-63. It does not appear from the papers whether on that occasion he was admitted to a pension or was allowed a gratuity. If he received a gratuity he may on refunding it be allowed to count towards pension, under the Civil Rules, his service in the Indian Navy, but if he received a pension his case will fall under Section 96, Rule I., of the Civil Pension Code.

Referring to the remarks made in the report of the Superintendent of Marine, No. 494, dated 29th August 1872, as to the age from which service in the Indian Navy counts for pension, the Governor-General in Council desires it to be understood that the concession in respect of service in the Navy being counted for civil pension does not extend to any period of employment which is not admissible under the Civil Rules. If, therefore, Mr. Neale counts service in the Indian Navy towards civil pension he can only do so in respect to service rendered after he attained the age of 22 years.

ORDER.—Ordered that the foregoing Resolution be communicated to the Marine Department and to the Accountant-General, Punjab.
