Surgeon Major G. Smith, M.D.
Physician of the General Hospital, Madras.

Respected Sir,

I, V. Greenesara Pillai, Assistant Steward General Hospital, most humbly take the liberty to submit an application for pension in the prescribed form, and a Copy of printed Certificates obtained from the several Medical Officers under whom I have served during the long period of 35 years uninterrupted service, and beg that you will, in consideration of the diligence, honesty, and good conduct always evinced by me, be pleased to obtain for me a decree pension, so as to enable me to pass the remaining days of my life with ease and tranquillity.

The following particulars of various situations through which I have passed during the course of my career are also submitted for your information:-

I was first entertained as temporary Concopt in the Depot Hospital, Poonamallee on the 13th October 1837, on a salary of Rs. 10-8-0 and served there up to February 1838. In May following I was employed

Permanent Assistant Comaopoly, 2^d Battalion Artillery Hospital, St. Thomas Mount, on Rs 10-8-0.
In July of that year, I was appointed Comaopoly 4th Battalion Artillery Hospital, St. Thomas Mount on Rs 21, and held that situation until March 1858, when in consequence of the amalgamation of the Hosp 4th Battalion Artillery with that of the 2^d Battalion Artillery, I was transferred as Assistant Comaopoly, General Hospital, Madras, on Rs 14-0-0, and in 1858, I succeeded to the post of Comaopoly, General Hospital on Rs 28-0-0. Subsequently, the appointment was styled Purveyor, General Hospital, and the salary raised to Rs 30-0-0, and it is now called Assistant Steward, General Hospital.
