Chingleput District, Collector's Office,
M. C. Sathya
Saidapet, 16 July 1873..

FROM

A W Barlow Esq: Ag. COLLECTOR OF THE CHINGLEPUT DISTRICT.

To

J. Lushington Esq: Accountant Genl,
Madras

SIR,

I have the honor to forward for the sanction of Government, a register of application for compensation gratuity, Rs 17-8. to one Mahommed Azim, a peon in the late Carangooly taluk.

2 This individual was thrown out of employ in the reduction of establishment by the Honorable C Pelly's scheme.

1860, but owing, as it seems, to a misconception, that he was employed in the Police, no gratuity was recommended. As however it now appears, that he has only been employed since as a batter-peon in the Chancery Civil Court, the present application is made on his behalf.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

M. J. [Signature]

Mahomed Azum

The undersigned has the honor to request explanation on the following points:—

When had the Applicant preferred his claim for gratuity; whether before or within the time prescribed in notification published at page 26 Vol. I of official gaz. for 1868.

If he had preferred his claim within the time prescribed in the above notification what was the cause of further delay in recommending his Application?

What was the age of the Applicant when he was thrown out of employment?

Reply.

The Applicant, who was Police Peon before the revision in 1860, preferred his claim for gratuity within the prescribed time, but it was rejected under the impression, that he was employed in the Police Department.

It was subsequently ascertained that he was not employed in the Police Department and the further delay that occurred in disposing of his case, was caused by search made in the records to ascertain his exact service in the District.

The Peon was 33 when thrown out of employ, and a batta Peon in the Civil Court of Chingleput since.

From the Collector of Chingleput, dated 16th July 1873.
By Accountant General, dated 1st October 1873.
Order thereon 10th Nov 1873 No 5381

Mahomed Ali, late peon in the Caromgully Taluq, was entitled to a compensation gratuity on the abolition of his appointment under the Honorable Mr. Pelly's Scheme in 1860 but his application was rejected on the ground that he had obtained re-employment in the Police.

The ground of rejection is now reported to have been erroneous as no such employment had been obtained and under these circumstances, His Excellency the Governor

The applicant, now a batta peon in the Civil Court at Chingleput, appears to be incapable of performing the duties of a taluq or Huzur peon.
