Sir, With reference to the particulars called for,
I have the honor to inform you that

1. — 2nd of December 1868 was intended to show date of increased pay in same appointment of 11th April 1865 — the termination of this appointment was not shown as I was under the impression that the date of final termination of service only would be necessary, breaks being shown in Service book.

2. Date of termination of first appointment was erroneously omitted to be shown in Service book under the same name as shown above.

3. The Medical Certificate furnished, differing in form to that required by Section 51 a. b. of the Civil Pension Code was submitted through oversight caused by pressure of Office duties, & received from the Acting Civil Surgeon, a renewed certificate being now submitted.

4. Two-thirds of applicant's salary drawn by him, has been debited to Post Fund & one-third to Marine, from 11th April 1865 to date of retirement from service.
