Proceedings of the Madras Government, Pension Department, 24th November 1873.

Read the following papers:—

From the Collector of Madura, dated 23rd August 1873.

„ Deputy Accountant-General, dated 6th September 1873, No. 62.

ORDER THEREON, 24th November 1873, No. 591.

The applicant's service has been verified for a period of thirty-four years, six months, and nineteen days; but the Officiating Deputy Accountant-General certifies that he is not entitled to gratuity, as he appears to have been removed from service on account of overstaying his leave. This opinion, however, is hardly borne out by the record, as, in the English translation of the Order discharging him, it is stated that the applicant is removed from his post as he has overstayed his leave and is incapable (physically) of continuing his duty. The dismissal of an old servant without explanation for merely overstaying his leave by fifteen days would have been highly improper, but the wording of the Order shows clearly that the Salt Deputy Collector was acting on a consideration of the man's physical incapacity; and, as he appears to have been upwards of sixty years old at the time of the passing of the Order, His Excellency the Governor in Council resolves to sanction, under Section 63a of the Civil Pension Code, an invalid gratuity of Rupees (36) thirty-six to Veeraragu Naik, late Measurer at Viravanadapatam Salt Station in the District of Madura.
