Proceedings of the Madras Government, Pension Department, 1st December 1873.

Read the following papers:—

From the Master Attendant, dated 6th August 1873.

„ Deputy Accountant-General, dated 6th September 1873, No. 290.

ORDER THEREON, 1st December 1873, No. 600.

Under Sections 49 and 56a of the Civil Pension Code, His Excellency the Governor in Council is pleased to grant to St. Simon Lewis D'Souza, late Superintendent of Armeghon Lighthouse, an invalid gratuity of Rupees (840) eight hundred and forty, equal to twelve months' salary, to which he is entitled for his qualifying superior service of fourteen years, two months, and thirteen days.

2. Before submitting the above order for the confirmation of the Government of India, the Government desire to know more clearly the grounds on which such a reference is considered necessary. Signalmen are nowhere excluded from the qualification in the Pension Code; the applicant's pay was above Rupees 10, and the Master Attendant has clearly shown that his real duties were not those of an inferior officer. Section 40 quoted by the Deputy Accountant-General provides for the cases of persons having an inferior designation but performing the duties of a superior officer, and persons bearing a superior designation but performing the duties of an inferior office. The applicant's case falls within neither of these categories.

I, George Smith M.D. Surgeon Major and Physician General Hospital, Madras, do hereby Certify that Mr. S. D'Souza Super-intendent, Armozhan Light House, Nellore District, has been under my treatment from 26th September to 2nd December 1872 and from 4th January to 17th March 1873 for Paralysis (Hemiplegia of the right side of the body), and that he is not likely to derive permanent benefit from further treatment or from change of air. He is, in my opinion, unfit for further service; and to the best of my judgment, such disqualification is not the result of intemperance, or other irregular habits.

ought to be shown in the Column

1. The Applicant's service as Signaller has been included in the column
"Piloted, reckoned as service" because that service was of a permanent nature and in a former case, a Signaller on 15 Papers was granted a gratuity, or with the advantage of benefiting any provision for pension that might thereafter be passed in favour of Signallers by the Government of India, vide G.O. N^o 402, of 9 Decr 1861. This provision, it may be presumed, has since been granted, as now pension is allowed to inferior servants such as persons & others. But in the present instance only gratuity is claimed.
2. The duties of a Signaller attached to this office is to signalize to vessels in the Roadstead, to keep a Register of vessels in the Roads and note therein the time of their arrivals and departures, to write out notices of arrivals of Steamers and other vessels for distribution to the different Public Offices and Departments at the Presidency, to keep a good look out both day and night, and to attend to signals made from the shipping in the Roads particularly so in foul weather.
3. The Medical Certificate is herewith sent.
4. The leaves he obtained have been inserted as requested.

Memorandum

It is regretted that there are no other instances recorded in this Department than the one referred to in this office No 5179, of 20th ultimo, but it must be observed that the Signallers attached to this office are superior men, who, from the nature of the duties performed by them, should be classed as superior servants. They are not Signal-lascars or Syrongs, who do the work mechanically, but must know to read and write, and be thoroughly acquainted with the Commercial Code of Signals.
