DECEMBER.

Granting compensation gratuities to two Warders of the District Jail, Coimbatore.

Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department, 22nd July 1873.

No. 109. Read the following letter from Lieutenant-Colonel W. J. WILSON, Inspector-General of Jails, to the Hon. W. HUDLESTON, Chief Secretary to Government, Fort St. George, dated Ootacamund, 5th July 1873, No. 109:—

Judl. Dept., 18th Sept. 1872, No. 1273.

With reference to the Order noted in the margin, I have the honour to forward a report from the Superintendent of the Central Jail at Coimbatore upon the result of the experiment of substituting European and East Indian Warders for natives, which was commenced in November last. I also forward a letter from the same officer regarding the employment of foreign convicts as warders.

2. Mr. Grimes is satisfied that the experiment has been successful. He states that the men are attentive to their duties, do not absent themselves as the Natives used to do, that they are cleanly and orderly, and take an interest in their work, and that discipline is better maintained. The disadvantages are, first, that the strength of the establishment is not sufficient, because if any man becomes ill there is no one to replace him; second, that the pay of the Chief Warder and Deputy Chief Warder is too small considering the onerous nature of the work they have to perform.

3. Mr. Grimes, therefore, recommends that the establishment should be increased by two additional warders, on Rupees 20 each per mensem, and that the pay of the Chief Warder and of the Deputy Chief Warder should be raised from Rupees 25 and Rupees 22-8-0 to Rupees 35 and Rupees 25, respectively. To meet the increased expenditure he proposes to discharge three of the four Native Peons on the establishment of the Central Jail, and the four Native Warders of the District Jail, the buildings of which are contiguous to those of the Central Jail. By this arrangement the additional annual expenditure will only amount to Rupees 18. The reason assigned for dispensing with the Native Warders is that, so long as these men are employed, convicts will obtain money and other prohibited articles; and, although I am not satisfied that the introduction of such articles will cease with the change, I am in favour of the proposal on general grounds.

4. It will be observed from the seventh paragraph of the Superintendent's letter that he proposes to supply the places of the Native Warders by some of the Straits Settlements Convicts, upon whom he believes he can depend. This proposal caused me to make a reference regarding the inducement to be held out to these men, for, as their position will be one of considerable responsibility, I thought it only reasonable that they should have some present advantage, more especially those sentenced for life. I, therefore, suggested that the men selected might be permitted to live outside the walls on the jail lands, and that they should be allowed a small piece of ground to cultivate on their own account. Mr. Grimes, in his reply which is enclosed, is of opinion that the scheme is feasible, and he forwards a nominal roll of the men he would choose, but he proposes that they should go through a term of probation, for at least six months, before they are permitted to live outside.

5. There are at present between fifty and sixty Straits Settlements Convicts in this Presidency and about 116 Burmese Convicts. The number of the former is diminishing yearly, and we are not receiving any more; but the number of Burmese may be expected to increase; and, in recommending the present proposal for favourable consideration, I am actuated by a sense of the propriety, if not necessity, of doing something with the view of ameliorating the condition of foreign convicts under sentence of transportation for life. The first convicts received from Burmah came over in 1870, so that sufficient time has scarcely elapsed to entitle them to any particular indulgence, but the experiment at Coimbatore, if sanctioned, will be a tentative measure of some value.

From H. R. GRIMES, Esq., Superintendent of the Central Jail, Coimbatore, to Lieutenant-Colonel W. J. WILSON, Inspector-General of Jails, dated Coimbatore, 12th June 1873, No. 56.

Judl. Dept., 18th September 1872, No. 1273.

With reference to Order of Government noted in the margin, I have the honour to submit my report on the experiment of employing European and East Indian Pensioned Soldiers as Warders in lieu of Natives.

2. On the receipt of the Order above quoted I gave a month's notice to the Native Warders that their services would be dispensed with, and I advertised in the local papers for pensioned soldiers. I received eighty-three applications, from which I selected eleven men with the best testimonials.

3. With the exception of two of these men who had to be dismissed, the conduct of the others has been satisfactory; they are attentive to their duties, do not absent themselves as the Native Warders did, are cleanly and orderly, and take an interest in their work. Discipline is far better maintained, more work is obtained from the convicts, and many breaches of Jail Rules which the Native Warders permitted have been discovered, and have met with punishment. This has been one cause of the increase in punishments during the past year as compared with former years, but I trust this will not be permanent, as the convicts are beginning to learn that it is to their advantage to abstain from committing breaches of the rules.

4. I have every reason to be satisfied with the experiment, and decidedly of opinion that the employment of European and East Indian as warders is far superior to that of employing Natives. The only disadvantages are that the present establishment, consisting of twelve men, instead of twenty-five, the strength of the former establishment, is not sufficient to carry on the work efficiently. If any man falls ill I have no one to replace him. Also that the pay of the higher grades, viz., Chief and Deputy Chief Warders, is not sufficient to induce good and respectable men to remain in these appointments. These men, whose principal duties are to have a general supervision over the others, and to take charge of the main gate in turn, have much harder work than the warders in charge of the yards. They are constantly on the move from 6 o'clock in the morning until after 6 o'clock in the evening, with only a short interval of rest during meal hours, and they complain that the addition in their pay to that of the warders is not commensurate to the work they have to do.

5. Under these circumstances, I propose for your consideration an increase to the establishment of two warders on Rupees 20 a-month each, and to raise the pay of the Chief Warder and Deputy Chief Warder from Rupees 25 and Rupees 22-8-0 to Rupees 35 and Rupees 25, respectively. This will amount to an increase of Rupees 630 per annum, exclusive of clothing and quarters. To meet this increased expenditure I would propose to abolish three of the four peons on the Central Jail, who receive Rupees 7 a-month each, and to abolish the four Native Warders of the District Jail whose aggregate pay amounts to Rupees 30 a-month. By these reductions the increased expenditure will only amount to Rupees 18 per annum.

	RS.
Three peons, at Rupees 7 each	21
Four Native Warders	30
Total ...	51

Total ...	612

6. The reason I propose to abolish the Native Warders of the District Jail and Peons of the Central Jail is that I find they are a channel whereby convicts still obtain many prohibited articles and indulgences. Only a short time ago a case was brought to my notice of a Native Warder getting a wealthy ryot, a convict, to write letters to his relatives to place money in the warder's hands for his, the convict's, benefit. The convict admitted he had written the letters, which are in my possession. This clearly proves that as long as natives are employed as warders, convicts will obtain money and prohibited articles.

7. Instead of employing Natives as warders for the District Jail, I would propose to employ some of the Chinese and Malays, who are now Convict Warders in the Central Jail. These men are under sentences of transportation for life and for shorter periods; most of them are well-behaved, quiet and orderly, and if they are given a work to do I can generally depend on their doing it well. All of them have undergone a long term of rigorous imprisonment, much longer than natives under similar sentences undergo on being sent to the Andamans. I have six or eight of them whom I think I could depend on; they would certainly get more work out of the District Jail prisoners than is obtained at present by the Native Warders, and there could be but little chance of their being able to obtain money from the prisoners' relatives. Should these proposals meet your approval, I request you will submit them to Government for sanction.

8. In conclusion, I beg to inform you, in reply to your question as to what cost has already been incurred, and what progress has been made as regards accommodation for the warders, that two additional rooms have been added in the Warders' Lines to the huts formerly built for the Native Warders, and two cottages in pise work have been built near the main gate of the jail for the Chief and Deputy Chief Warder, one of which is at present occupied by the Deputy Jailor, for whom no quarters have as yet been built. These cottages each contain a sitting room, two bed-rooms, and two bath-rooms, with kitchen and outhouses and a large backyard. The total outlay already expended on these buildings and the additions to the huts in the Warders' Lines has amounted to Rupees 420-11-10 only out of the Rupees 1,500 sanctioned.

From H. R. GRIMES, Esq., Superintendent of the Central Jail, Coimbatore, to Lieutenant-Colonel W. J. WILSON, Inspector-General of Jails, dated Coimbatore, 27th June 1873, No. 62.

I have the honour to acknowledge the receipt of your letter, No. 2011, dated 23rd instant. I quite agree that some inducements should be held out to the Straits Settlement Convicts transported for life, should the Government approve of their being employed instead of Native Warders in the District Jail, and I think your proposal to give them eventually a cottage on the jail grounds and freedom out of jail hours an excellent one. They certainly will not have much time for gardening or making things for sale on their own account, but a day off duty occasionally, and working in their cottages at night after the jail is locked up, or in their gardens, before the jail is unlocked in the morning, will give a little time to those who are industrious.

2. I submit a nominal roll of those men whom I would recommend to be employed as warders, and I have included in it some term men who have conducted themselves well and are very useful; and if you see no objection to the same indulgences being held out to them as to the lifers, I see no reason against their being allowed them. I presume the law would not be vitiated by their being allowed such indulgences, as they are not sentenced to rigorous imprisonment but to a period of transportation. They have already undergone a fair time of rigorous imprisonment, having been kept at work inside the walls of this jail for six years, during which time their conduct has been very good, and they have all done excellent work in weaving, basketmaking, shoemaking, and carpenters' work.

3. If the indulgences you propose are sanctioned, I expect these men will soon bring the waste ground in the jail compound into cultivation. The Chinese being generally, I believe, good agriculturist, and if eight or ten of them are employed as warders, this would allow of four being on duty on alternate days, giving them time on the days they are off duty to work on their own account.

4. As soon as the Burmese have undergone a sufficient term of imprisonment, they will also be available to take up the same duties and will replace the Straits Settlement term men on their release.

5. Amongst the Straits men there are only five lifers, one of whom I should never permit to go outside the walls as he is a desperate character ; three are remarkably quiet, well-behaved men ; the fifth has not served a sufficient term of rigorous imprisonment as yet, but he appears to be a man of quiet disposition.

6. Of Burmese there are twenty-seven under sentence of transportation for life. Many of them are at present well-behaved, and may be employed outside the walls in the course of four or five years.

7. If my proposition of employing the Straits Settlement men is sanctioned, I think they should go through a term of probation, for six months at least, before they should be granted the indulgence of living separately in the jail grounds. I mean that they should do warders' work, but be locked up as at present in the Central Jail. I am employing a few as work overseers over the District Jail gangs, as I found promoting short-termed men to be maistries to be a failure ; they never supervised the men under them, and as the post carried with it no benefits, they simply did nothing. The Malays are doing well as work overseers, and there has been an immense improvement in the amount of work obtained from the District Jail gangs within the past fortnight.

(Signed) HENRY R. GRIMES,
Supt., Central Jail.

No. 110.

ORDER THEREON, 22nd July 1873, No. 1151.

The Governor in Council sanctions the proposed addition of two warders, on Rupees 20 each monthly, to the staff of the Coimbatore Central Jail, and the increase of the pay of the Chief Warder and Deputy Chief Warder from Rupees 25 and Rupees 22-8-0, respectively, to Rupees 35 and Rupees 25, the increase of charge being partly met by a reduction of three peons out of the four men of this class on the Central Jail Establishment and by the abolition of the four Native Warders employed in the District Jail Department, the place of these latter being supplied by Convict Warders selected from among the Straits and Burmese Convicts under sentence for life, or for long terms of imprisonment. The inducement to good conduct which is to be held out to these men is that they shall after probation be permitted to reside on the jail lands beyond the walls and be free after jail hours, but this arrangement the Governor in Council is not prepared to sanction.

2. The Government observe from the nominal roll of men selected by Mr. Grimes for this duty and privilege that, with one exception, they were all sentenced for " robbery with violence " and " burglary and larceny," and the Government do not consider that such men could, with safety to the community, be permitted to reside beyond control or supervision at night.

3. The Governor in Council trusts that some alternative arrangement may be devised to meet this difficulty, which shall at the same time afford sufficient inducement to, and reward for good conduct on the part of the Convict Warders for the District Jail.
