FROM THE ACCOUNTANT GENERAL

TO THE GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS,

To The Civil Judge Salem

Sir, Vide your Office Application for inferior pension on behalf of late H. H. Injangan Ammankhan of 16th Instant -

The undersigned has the honor to enquire why items 2 & 4 of the history of service show the Applicant to have held the post of Lance Naik on Rs. 6 a month, while the Annual Returns on record in this Office from 1846 to 50 do not show the post on the Criminal Jail Establishment at Salem and to request that the Applicant's degradation on 21st January 1849 may be explained.

Memo. No. 37

With reference to item 2 and 4 of the history of services herein referred to the Civil Judge has the honor to state that the applicant has been put down in the acquittance rolls of the late Subordinate Court as Lance Naigee and Duffadar on Rs 600 respectively from 1846 to 1850 on the establishment temporarily attached to jail, but why the annual Returns in the Accountant General's Office do not show this, and why the applicant was degraded, the Civil Judge is not able to explain in the absence of any vouchers of the Principal Sudder Amins Court, but according to the applicant's own statement, the post of Duffadar which he held having been abolished owing to a reduction in the number of prisoners on the 20th January, he was made Lance Naigee from the following date.

No 33 5 11 16th November 1872

From
E. F. Elliott Esq^r
Civil Judge of Salem
To
F. Lushington Esq^r
Accountant General
Madras.

Sir,
I have the honor to forward herewith an Application from Ummer Khan who was Head Messenger in the late Principal Sudder Amins Court at Salem for Compensation Pension, under section 63, Civil Pension Code.

2. This servant had been in receipt of pay at 10½ Rs per mensem up to 31st December 1869, or until the removal of the Principal Sudder Amins Court from Salem to Mangalore, after which his pay appears to have been reduced by ½ a Rupee upon the Revision of the Principal Sudder

Sudder Amin's Establishment in 1870, which he received until the 12th July 1872, when the Principal Sudder Amin's Court appears to have been abolished, as stated in the letter from the Principal Sudder Amin to my address enclosed herewith.

3. The total period of Applicant's service in the different capacities as particularized in his application and borne out by the records of Principal Sudder Amin's Court amounts to ^{yr. m. d.} 31-8-12, and although his case would appear to be a hard one and meriting more favorable consideration, yet I am precluded by the rules from recommending him for a higher rate of pension than he is entitled to thereunder, as a public servant of inferior grade only.

4. I can therefore only recommend him for a compensation pension of 4 Rupees a month, which I request may be granted to him comencing encing from the 13th July 1872.

Sir,

Ummarkhan the Dafadar attached to the late Principal Sadr Amin's court at Salem having applied for a certificate or a letter to your address to enable him to put in his application for pension, I beg to inform you that the said individual accompanied the Court from Salem to Mangalore and was borne on its Establishment until the 12th July 1872 when the Court was abolished. He has drawn a pay of Rs. 10 a month as a Dafadar from 1st January 1870 to 10th June 1872, a subte having drawn his pay from the 11th June to 12th July following. He was drawing a pay of 10 1/2 Rs. a month while at Salem and had I known that Ummarkhan was willing to accompany the Court to Mangalore when I submitted a revised list of Establishment for sanction in 1870, I would not have reduced his pay by half a Rupee, which I am afraid will now interfere with his right to pension and will subject him to some loss, which I believe he does not deserve and for which I am extremely sorry.

2. Ummarkhan has behaved himself to my entire satisfaction during the 2 years and 7 months that he has served under me and I look upon him as one of the most faithful and old servants of Government deserving every consideration in the matter of his pension.

From the Civil Session Judge of Salem, dated 16th November 1872 No 33 and from the Dy. Accountant General, dated 17th December 1872 No 51.

Order thereon

Under Sections 47 and 63 (a) of the Civil Pension Code, His Excellency the Governor in Council is pleased to grant to Salem, Chunder Khan, late Head Messenger in the Principal Sudder Amara Court of Salem, a Compensation gratuity of Rs 60 (Sixty) equal to six months salary to which he is entitled.

I would be pleased to see it in my 3400

2. The Civil Judge recommends the grant of an inferior pension of Rs. 400 on the supposition that the whole of the Applicant's service amounting to 31 years, 8 months & 12 days qualifies for pension but a period of 3 years, 6 months 19 days during which service was of a temporary nature must be excluded from the computation whereby the Applicant's net qualifying service is reduced to 28 years, 1 month & 23 days and he becomes entitled to a gratuity of five months pay only. — Cdr.

I submit the promotion cannot be called temporary employment.
There was a certain fixed Establishment for the old Jail & this man was a member of it. When this Establishment was increased owing to an influx of Prisoners, additional Establishment was created under the head of Jail House & Jail House - one of which he got for good conduct.
When the Prisoners decreased, he was moved back into his old place.

the move throughout to be most prejudicial to the Applicant's interests as he forfeits the pension to which he would have been entitled for service exceeding 30 years. It seems advisable to maintain the Rule that service of a temporary nature cannot be allowed to count, though in the present instance the Applicant is seriously affected and probably at the time was not aware of or at least never gave a thought to the consequences of his acceptance of promotion.
In these days, however, the Rules are more generally known and service in temporary establishments is, I imagine, accepted with a full knowledge of the consequences. It is for the Govt. to decide whether the present is to be treated as a special case and application for a pension made to the Govt. of India. — Cdr.

2. The Accountant General has rejected the applicant's service from the 2^d July 1846 to 20th January 1850, a period of 3 years 6 months & 19 days, on the ground that it was of a temporary nature; but it would appear that the applicant was a member of the fixed jail establishment, and that, according to the practice which obtained at the time, he was promoted for good conduct to fill a higher post on the additional establishment entertained on account of an influx of prisoners, reverting to his permanent post, ^{when} the necessity for the increased establishment ceased to exist and a reduction ensued.
