Wm. The reason for delay in obtaining the vote of Constantine No. 500 Lydilly was that the Superintendent took all votes in person, and some time elapsed before every Taluk could be visited.

Notes:

1. Clasp Constable No. 508 Syed Ally was formerly a Taluk Revenue Peon in Chinghapur District in which capacity he served for about 3 years & was thrown out of employ in the beginning of 1860 on the introduction of the new Police.

The Dypt. of the Eye Surgon having examined this man in presence of the Committee states that there is no visible defect in the eyes, but that there may be night blindness, and, if so, that it is incurable. Is feeble and not likely to be made fit for service by medical treatment. Contrasted in general service not the result of his own imprudence.	Unfit for further service. Is quite able to earn the whole of his livelihood.

I hereby certify that the above is a correct register of the individual therein named ages & service computed to this date.
