Modely I found Head Comisopillay of the Gunpowder Factory on joining in 1858 and has continued ever since in the regular efficient and trustworthy discharge of the duties he has had committed to him. His long experience in the Manufactory and intimate knowledge of the men employed have always been of great assistance to me in my Office. He is a respectable and deserving Public Servant, and having grown old in the Manufactory has claims which will I trust ensure him a comfortable support when no longer able for the efficient discharge of his responsible duties.
