I have the honor, immediately prior to my departure from Madras, to bring before the Government the hard case of the late Superintendent of the Armeghon Lighthouse, St. Simon Lewis D'Souza. In the Proceedings of Government, dated 1st December 1873, No. 600, the Government were pleased to grant that individual an invalid gratuity of Rs. (840) eight hundred and forty, to which he was entitled under Sections 49 and 56 (a) of the Civil Pension Code, but this amount has not yet been paid. His unfortunate widow, with her three children, are in great distress, and suffering want and privation, and I would respectfully and earnestly beg that the sum allotted to her late husband as a gratuity may be paid to her in anticipation of the sanction of the Government of India. I enclose a letter to my address from the late D'Souza, bearing his "mark," made a few hours before his death, and I feel I am only discharging my duty to his widow and orphans in thus bringing their case to the notice of Government.

ENCLOSURE.

From Mr. S. L. D'SOUZA, Superintendent, Armeghon Lighthouse, to the Master Attendant, Madras, dated Madras, 27th September 1873.

Finding myself fast sinking, I beg most respectfully in case I depart this life prior to the sanction of Government being received to the grant of the gratuity I am entitled to, that you will have compassion on my poor wife and three children (all girls) who will be left destitute, and do the needful for the amount being disbursed to my wife, for her and the children's support. This is my dying request, and I earnestly crave you will be pleased to give it your kind and benevolent support, in which hope, I prepare myself to die in peace, and may God in His mercy bless you and your's.

ORDER—dated 2nd March 1874, No. 119, Pension.
