Your arzee No 109 dated 30th of last month has been received, you state that Khanmahommed peon of ~~late~~ Police old Sibbandi under you has not only personally represented to you that as he is incapable of serving being afflicted with rheumatism and ulcers on his two legs his employment may be granted to his son, Sheik Ismayel, but also addressed a letter to that effect, and that Sheik Ismayel is a efficient man to serve. It is therefore directed as follows.

The aforesaid peon Khanmahommed is dismissed from his service from the 3d instant, his son Sheik Ismayel being appointed in his stead on the same date. You will therefore enter his name in the Baravard and cause him to perform the circar duties according to rule. You will moreover understand that the Badge of Khanmahommed should be made over to Sheik Ismayel.

ABSTRACT.

States that the Sub. Divn. Asst. Deputy Collr., finding him too old for the service has ordered him to retire from the Service on pension. That subsequently he applied to the Collr. to recommend him to Govt. for pension, who sent him to the Medical officer for a certificate. Adds that after the Certificate had been granted by the Civil Surgeon, the Collr. wrote to the Sub. Divn. Asst. Deputy Collr. that the Petr. was not eligible for pension, in as much as he resigned his post and also failed to procure the Medical Certificate before he presented his application to the Collr.

Prays for orders to grant him pension or to restore him to his former situation as a Revenue Jawan.

Abstract.

Represents that Petr becoming old applied for pension in February/72 to the As. Dy Collector requesting him to appoint in Petr's place his brother-in-law; that on the report of the latter, the Collector informed Petr that he would write for his pension, on the receipt of Petr's service list & the medical certificate; but that after Petr's return to Nursarowpett from Bunder he was favored with an endorsement by the Collector to the effect that as Petr resigned his appointment, he has no right to pension.

Complains that on the permanent Dy Collector reporting that Petr resigned -ed

-ed his appointment the Collector changed his first resolution; & the Revenue Board on appeal endorsed that they have nothing to do with grant of pensions; & a copy of the report of Dy Collector to the Collector regarding Petr's pension was denied to Petr.

Submitting the enclosed endorsements of the Collector & the Board, together with the petition from which it will be clear that Petr applied for pension & not resigned his appt., prays that orders may be issued for the grant of pension to Petr.
