No 422-
From

South Canara Collectors Office
Mangalore 14th March 1874

To H. S. Thomas Esquire Collector of South Canara.

R. W. Lodwick Esquire Accountant General to the Government of Madras.
Sir,

Varasinga Row late
Sea Customs Incharge of Pad bidry being No 6 on the list of servants recorded in G. O.
21st November 1864 -
No 484 Pension Department.

The individual noted in the margin, having been thrown out of employ on the general revision of the Sea Customs Establishment in 1862 according to the Honorable Mr. Pelly's scheme, was recommended with a number of other servants for a gratuity of Rupees 32.-- which was accordingly sanctioned in Government Order dated 21st November 1864 No 484 Pension Department.

2. It would appear that immediately after his retirement from the service Varsinga Row left the District, and his residence could not be ascertained, when enquiries were made regarding the same at the time of the receipt of the Government Order above alluded to sanctioning the payment of a gratuity to him.

3. Varasinga Row has now appeared and claims the gratuity, to which there is no doubt he is entitled. From enquiries I have instituted, I learn that he has not been employed in the Government Service from the date that his office in the Customs Department was abolished, and the amount of the gratuity sanctioned for payment to him still remains undischarged.

MC

4. I have the honor under the above circumstances, to request sanction for the gratuity of Rupees 32... ordered in Government Order No 484 dated 21st November 1864 it being paid to Varsinga Rao.

I have the honor to be

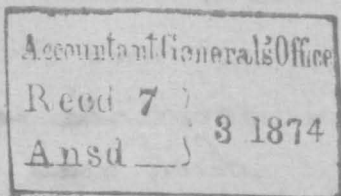

Sir

Your most obedient servant.

Mr. Thomas.
