Sir,

I have the honor to forward herewith, an application for pension to Sheikh Ibrahim Sahib, late Sub Magistrate of Wattrap, who is Superannuated. 2. Though Sheikh Ibrahim has served 42 Years, only 15 Years & 7 Months count towards his pension and he is therefore entitled to but Rupees 27-11-4 under the rules - a half pension would be Rupees 41-9-0 and as a special grant of half pension was made to Magherry Raidu, late Tahsildar of Kanganeri, who like Sheikh Ibrahim rose from the grade of peon, a similar indulgence might be granted in this case, the more especially as Sheikh Ibrahim has conducted himself

Enclosure No. 1

Extract from the Calendar of persons tried before the Court of Sessions in Case No. 118 of 1870, under date the 12th December, 1870. No. 205.

There is no evidence whatever to prove that the prisoner was guilty of the offence with which he is charged or indeed of any other offence. I am once more compelled to express dissatisfaction at the careless way in which the Palasegarapattam Sub Magistrate prepares his Cases for trial.

2. The first witness says her house was broken into on a certain night in the month of last Apr, and that she was not aware of this till the following morning, when she discovered that jewels worth a considerable sum of money had been carried off by the thieves, besides Purpoo and Soodrigno.

3. Her husband's brother wandered about for days endeavouring to get some information as to who the thieves were, and on the 4th day he was told that the prisoner and some others had been seen by him at the house of a jeweller trying to induce the jeweller to melt down certain jewels for them.

4. These jewels are not produced in Court, and there is no means of identifying them as those which were stolen from first witness.

The jeweller said he was too busy to melt down the jewels and the persons who brought them therefore left him, and the prisoner with them, and then the Case ends.

6. Before leaving the district, I desire to place on record my opinion of the unfitness of the Sub Magistrate for his place. His Cases, as the records of this Court will show, almost invariably break down, and persons against whom there is literally no evidence whatever are detained in custody by him and put to the degradation of having to submit to a trial in this Court, where a Magistrate of ordinary intelligence would perceive the impossibility of bringing such Cases to trial.

If report speaks truly and to a certain extent, I suppose it does there is a marked difference in a very important particular between you and some others who have preceeded you. This is a more most difficult to obtain and get invaluable especially in a country where the state of things is so contrary. In wishing you good bye I am anxious to express
