Abstract.

Referring to the endorsement on his former petition dated 27th June 1873, submitted Govt. No. 1241/74 the

. Fath

the endorsements of the ft authorities ends of the Board of Revenue; and represents that although he served the Govt for 42 years; yet his claims for pension have been overlooked and that his place has not been confered on his heir; as has been done in the cases of Khader Sait, the Shalot in the Deputy Collr office and others named within, whose services have been less than that of petr.

Prays, therefore, that that a pension with arrears may be granted to him in consideration of his long service of 42 years.
