No. 231.

FROM

C. G. MASTER, Esq., Acting Secretary to the Government of Fort St. George,

TO

THE SECRETARY TO THE GOVERNMENT OF INDIA, FINANCIAL DEPARTMENT.

SIR,

I am directed to submit the following case for the favourable consideration of His Excellency the Governor-General in Council.

2. One Mangalam Anunta Charri entered the Government service as a Javabnevis (Native Clerk) in October 1835 and held similar posts until December 1843, when he was dismissed for overstaying his leave. From the orders passed at the time it is clear that the order of dismissal was passed before Mangalam Anunta Charri had an opportunity of making any explanation, and he says that when he did make it the Collector who had dismissed him promised to reinstate him.

3. However this may be, he was not re-employed until November 1847, when he was made a peon, and he served in various inferior appointments until on the 3rd of June 1850 he was again made a Javabnevis, and he served from that date until the 23rd of March 1873, when it became necessary to remove him from the service owing to age and infirmities.

4. At the time of his retirement he held the post of Sub-Magistrate on a monthly salary of Rupees 100; but, owing to the break in 1843, his qualifying superior service amounts only to 22 years, 8 months, and 28 days, and he can merely be admitted to a pension of one-third his salary, or Rupees 33-5-4, in place of the larger pension of one-half, to which his length of service would otherwise entitle him.

5. As the fault for which he was dismissed was not of the most serious nature and may well have been capable of explanation, as stated by him, and as it has been effaced by a long course of subsequent good service, His Excellency the Governor in Council would recommend that Mangalam Anunta Charri may be allowed to count towards pension so much of his service prior to 15th December 1843 as would be reckoned as qualifying if there had been no break.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

By what named was struck her Kate Tuley in which the aptt is shown in the History of Series to have come from Sawyer to her ship. However, as that Tuley does not appear in the Annual Returns whether the cause of his appearance & ably name in Carroony is his to which it is known from the date of Dec 1890 from the British ar (that station) appears to belong?

Why was the appointment in the register to have been appointed as a full Member from 14 April 58 on 21 R² while for on the return of 1 May 58 he appears to have been appointed on 14 R² in a paper in Aug 2.

Why not the Appet shown in the reports to have been in service till 24 March/92, while from the pay bill for that month he appears to have drawn pay up to 23 March?

He has afforded me every possible assistance in his magisterial capacity in maintaining order and quiet in the Cantonment. He has ever shown himself ready to carry out such orders of mine that have been consistent with the authority invested in him.

I have in no case found that his want of the knowledge of the English language has been an impediment in the way of his dispensing the law and justice to offending and injured parties as the Sub-magistrate at this station has no power to try and punish Europeans, but has to submit all such cases to the Magistrate at Eydapet. I consider it a point of no consequence that he should not be able to read write or understand the English language.

about 3½ years during which time I have had much to do with him and he with me.

I ever found him most civil wishes as had for their object the good and well being of the native Community here.

I here tender to Mr. Anunthachary my best thanks for his most valuable aid and advice in the Bazar improvements. that through the kindness of the Collector of the District who placed at my disposal Rs 750 from the Local Funds I have been enabled to carry out. These improvements could not have been carried out had not Mr. Anunthachary entered cordially into their spirit and helped me by levying fines on fractious bazar men who were determined to oppose all innovation¹⁸⁰ on the old style of business. These men have now so beautiful and improved their shops or bazar fronts as to render the Poonamalle bazar one of the neatest and best regulated in India. This is my humble opinion.

Doubtless there is much more to be done which in due course my friend the submagistrate will help to carry out. With regard to Mr. Anun-thachary's magisterial powers it becomes me not to say much as his acts were independent of me in these matters. I have had however in the course of Command here to submit petty cases of theft and irregularities committed by Camp followers under me to him for investigation and punishment. In all such cases the Submagistrate most patiently investigated and according to his powers and degrees of the offence dispensed justice fairly.

I believe that Mr. Anunthachary is well up in law matters and that his talents and qualifications as a magistrate are of no mean order. I heartily wish him

I have known him for the last 3½ years during which I have had several opportunities of observing his character and conduct and I must admit that they have been excellent. He was an unpassed man at the first but has since qualified for the modified test. In his Revenue Capacity I believe he has given satisfaction and as a Sub Magistrate I am sure he has. Although not an English scholar he has shown much tact and judgment with the European Community in Poonamallee and I have reason to know that he is justly appreciated by them. The Honorable W. Hudleston
Chief Secretary to Government.

Sir

I have the honor to submit for the favorable consideration and orders of Govern-ment the following case in connection with an application for pension from Mr. Anantha-
 -Chary late Deputy Tahsildar and Sub--Magistrate of Ponnammallee Division in the Saidapet Taluk, who had to retire from the Public Service under the operations of the 55 years rule. As there are, in my opinion, special circumstances in the case entitling the Applicant to favourable consideration, I have taken the liberty of addressing Government direct, before submitting the usual Tabular Statement through the Accountant General.

Dec. 1758/4

2. It will be observed from the enclosed Register, that the total period of the Applicant's actual Service amounts to 32 years 11 months and 29 days, which would entitle him to half pension, even after deducting the period of Service before 22 and in ineligible grades, but unfortunately, there was a break of 3 years 10 months and 16 days, which reduces the period counting for the same, to 22 years 8 months and 29 days, thus rendering him only eligible to one third pension. In other words he has got a continuous service of 25 years 3 months and 17 days, after the break, but of this 2 years 6 months and 18 days belong to service in ineligible grades, while the period in eligible grades prior to the same (3 years 10 months 7 days) cannot be allowed to count for $\frac{1}{2}$ pension without special sanction, which I beg to recommend may

3. The applicant prays for this indulgence because he was ousted in the year 1843 from a post, thus causing the break, under a misapprehension while his explanation which had been called for, was still pending; but when he appealed to the Collector and brought it to his notice, the latter promised an early reinstatement on a vacancy occurring, and so he kept quiet, breaks in service being thought nothing of in 1843, and appeals almost unknown. He further points to his recent services in contributing to the preservation of the great Chembambaukham Tank in November 1872, when it was all but bursting, as a reason to accord him special consideration.
4. The records so far as they go, somewhat support the Applicant's statement. It appears that on the 15th December 1845, an order No 10 was sent by the then collector to the Peishkar of Acharavakham, directing him to take an explanation from the Applicant as to the cause of his overstaying his leave, but only 3 days after or on the 18th Idem, and before it was possible for any explanation to have been received, another order dismissing him for overstaying was despatched. Meantime, Applicant avers that he had furnished his explanation to the Peishkar and joined his duties as Javabnivi, and the latter statement appears correct from an Aji of the Peishkar dated 20th December 1845 No 4. On November 1847, Applicant was reinstated as a Peon but doing duty as a Javabnivi.

5. The nature of Applicant's service as detailed in para 2, makes his case a hard one, and considering that his services have recently been noticed by Government (Vide Extract from G.O. No 86 dated 10th January 1873. enclosed) it may, I think, be an instance in which Government may see fit to relax the rules as a special case.
Government

6. I may add that though the Applicant was not a case in which I felt justified in recommending retention in the service after he attained the age of 55, still his conduct when the Chemburumbakam Tank was in a critical state had my highest approval. At his age and in the most trying weather, he exposed himself at all hours and never left the bund, inspecting and personally encouraging the coolies employed.
