2. They have served in the Police

Department

Department for the periods specified against their names and have borne good characters. They are now unfit for further effective service as certified by the Annual Medical Invaliding Committee. The present disqualification for further service of Constables No. 814 and 845 is declared by the Medical Committee to have been the result of their own imprudence and irregular habits.

3. They are entitled to the gratuities set opposite to their respective names under section I of the Police Superannuation Fund Rules according to scale A, section 104 of the revised civil Pension Code.

I have the honor to be
Sir,
Your Most Obedt. Servant,

SIR,

With reference to the accompanying Memorandum from the Inspector General of Police directing or sanctioning the re-entertainment of Constable Moonisamy No. 956, I have the honor to request you will ask the Inspector General to specify whether the Constable is to have the benefit of former service.

He was enlisted on the 28 August 18 so the matter is of considerable importance to him and the addition of a few words may save trouble and obviate doubt some years hence.

I have the honor to be
Sir,
Your most obt Servant

Enlisted from 12th June

Memo on the case of Constable Mooneesawmy No. 906 of the North Arcot Police.

If this Constable was justly prosecuted and sentenced to one months simple imprisonment for negligent escape, he ought not to be reentertained.

2 The unconvicted prisoner who escaped was re-apprehended by this same Constable on the next day and placed before the Magistrate. This bars suspicion of dishonest connivance. Under these circumstances and looking to the long service (nearly 11 years) and excellent Character of the Constable the measure of Prosecu seems to have been unnecessarily harsh. He may therefore be re-entertained.

3 Greater discretion should be used in resorting to the extreme measure of prosecution.
