Reply to the Deputy Accountant General's Memo dated 18th May 1874.

No 1726.

- The full names of the 1st and 2^d applicants are Sangore Vasudeva Rao and Thoniri Rangasami Naik respectively.
- Service books were not kept by the 1st and 2^d applicants by their own negligence and no book was kept by the 3rd applicant, because he was discharged before these books were supplied to the Sany establishment for the first time. The service book of the first applicant is now forwarded and those of the 2^d and 3rd will be prepared and forwarded as soon as their attendances can be procured.
- 1st and 2^d applicants - Owing partly to their not having applied for pension till 16th December 1873 and 5th March 1874 respectively and partly to the absence of their service books which rendered the verification of their services difficult.
- 3rd applicant - Owing partly to his not having produced his service book till the end of January 1874 and partly to search having had to be made in the records to verify his long service which contained numerous changes.
- The 3rd applicant was allowed the option referred to but preferred gratuity on the superior scale to a pension of Rs. Rupees on the inferior scale. His application is herewith retransmitted.
