„ Deputy Accountant-General, dated 4th July 1874, No. 21.

ORDER THEREON, 3rd August 1874, No. 441.

Application is made for the grant of a gratuity of Rupees 48 to M. Ramanujah Iyengar, lately a Zilladar in the Chingleput District, for a qualifying inferior service of twenty-five years, two months, and fourteen days.

2. The Deputy Accountant-General would deduct from the above service the period of eight years, three months, and six days, during which the applicant served as Zilladar, on the ground that it was service in a temporary establishment.

3. The Government have, however, on a previous* occasion been pleased to consider such service permanent, and M. Ramanujah Iyengar might be similarly dealt with, but, as his conduct during the later years of his service appears to have been unsatisfactory, His Excellency the Governor in Council resolves to grant him a reduced gratuity of Rupees (40) forty.

4. It appears from paragraph 2 of the Acting Sub-Collector's letter to the Collector of Chingleput, dated 28th January 1874, No. 49, that that officer purposely omitted to forward an application for a gratuity on behalf of M. Ramanujah Iyengar, as he considered him to have been indifferent and careless in the discharge of his duties, but the Government observe that the power to withhold or reduce retiring allowances rests with them alone, and that heads of departments have no such power as that erroneously exercised by the Acting Sub-Collector.
