Proceedings of the Madras Government, Pension Department, 10th August 1874.

Read the following papers :—

From the Inspector-General of Jails, dated 11th June 1874, No. 2144.
Report of the Deputy Accountant-General, dated 18th July 1874, No. 16.

ORDER THEREON, 10th August 1874, No. 454.

Ordered that the application above recorded be returned to the Inspector-General of Jails, and that his attention be called to the remarks of the Deputy Accountant-General pointing out that Raghavool Naick is not entitled to a compensation pension as his appointment has not been abolished.

2. Under these circumstances Raghavool Naick must be reinstated in his post as Head Warder, and the reduction of one warder must be effected in a regular manner.

3. The Government observe that Raghavool Naick is reported to have borne a very good character, and as there is nothing to show that he is in any way unfit for duty they are unable to understand why he was removed.

Proceedings of the Madras Government

Read the following letter from the Inspector General of Jails

Forwarding application for compensation pension in behalf of Raghavool Naick, late a Head Warder of the Jail at Chingleput.
Report of the Account General

(H.E. 11 June 1874, No. 2144.)

H.E. 18th July 1874 No. 16)

Order thereon 10th August 1874 No. 154

Ordered that the application

above recorded be returned to the Inspector General of Jails and that his attention be called to the remarks of the Deputy Accountant General pointing out that Raghavool Naick is not entitled to compensation pension as his appointment has not been abolished

2. Under these circumstances Raghavool Naick must be reinstated in his post one warder of the jail abolished but the post of the jail discharged the headwarder & promoting a warder to the post left him place unfilled. This was irregular & would if allowed cost more than abolishing a warder's post. It was held on the headwarder who bore a very good character.
