With reference to your Memo
No. 12, of the 20th Instant, I have the honor to state that although Apparao Mudelly is represented to have been employed continuously in the service of Government as a bricklayer Maistry from 1843 to 1868, yet as subordinates of his class / Maistries / are not eligible to pension under section 38 Chapter VIII of the Civil Pension Code, I do not think that the fact of the man's salary having,
in previous years, been charged to "Works" makes him eligible to Pension under section 21/b/ of the Civil Pension Code. It seems to me that gratuity only can be claimed under section 63

of the Civil Pension Code,
but I would suggest a reference to the Government of India in order that there may be a definite
ruling on the subject
for guidance in similar cases in future.

accompanied your Memo:

are herewith returned
as requested.

The District Engineer Bangalore is requested to inform. Apparo Maistry
 that from all the enquiries
 that have been made
 it does not appear that the Maistry's services have been of such a nature
 as to entitle him either
 to Pension or gratuity.

I would not expect a compassionate allowance
 in such a case. The man it is acknowledged has served for upwards of 25
 years. with credit & has

Memorandum for Orders

In the beginning ^{2nd} of the present year, the case of one Appavoo, who had been a mistry in the Deptt Public Works for 25 years, but who had ceased to be employed in 1868, was brought to notice.

2 It appeared that at the time his services were dispensed with, the Executive Engineer at Bangalore Captain Mayne recommended that he should receive a pension, as a special case. Captain Mayne admitted that he believed he was not entitled to any pension.

3 The Superintendent Engineer, Colonel Ford, appears to have recorded Captain

No. 4.

FROM

D. F. CARMICHAEL, Esq.,

To

THE SECRETARY TO THE GOVERNMENT OF INDIA,

FINANCIAL DEPARTMENT.

SIR,

I am directed to forward the accompanying application for the grant of an invalid pension of Rupees (6) six per mensem to one Appavoo.

2. This man was for twenty-five years continuously employed as a Maistry on Government works, but retired in 1868, having lost his eyesight. It appears that he at no time held a substantive appointment on a permanent establishment, but was paid from estimates of work, as was then universally the case with the entire grade of "Maistries," and he is, therefore, not strictly entitled to any retiring allowance.

3. He was, however, as above stated, never once out of employment for the long period of a quarter of a century, and he is described as having been a very useful and trustworthy servant of unimpeachable character; and, as the nature of his infirmity is such as to preclude him from gaining his own livelihood, His Excellency the Governor in Council would recommend that his case should be specially treated, and a compassionate pension be granted to him, payable in arrears from the date of his retirement. He was recommended at the time by his immediate superior for this boon, but the application was somehow shelved by the Superintending Engineer.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

FORT ST. GEORGE,
5th January 1874.

Secretary to Government.

Proceedings of Government, Pension Department.

Read the following papers:—

From the District Engineer, Bangalore, dated 2nd July 1873.

Do. Deputy Accountant-General, dated 5th November 1873, No. 342.

ORDER THEREON, 5th January 1874, No. 3.

Application is made for the grant of an invalid pension to S. Appavoo Moodelliar, who was for twenty-five years continuously employed as a Maistry on Government works; but, as it appears that his appointment was at no time a substantive one on a permanent establishment, he is not strictly entitled to any retiring allowance.

2. The applicant retired in 1868, and the Executive Engineer under whom he had been employed strongly recommended that his case should be made a special one, as he had borne a good character, had been a useful and trustworthy servant, and, having lost his eyesight, was no longer able to provide for himself. This recommendation was not then submitted to the Government; but, under the circumstances detailed in it, His Excellency the Governor in Council resolves to forward the case to the Government of India as a special one, and to recommend the grant to S. Appavoo Moodelliar of an invalid pension of Rupees (6) six per mensem, payable in arrears from the 31st August 1868, being the date of his retirement.
