Memo

- 1 The Jail at Coimbatore was previous to year 1843 in charge of the Auxiliary Court at Coimbatore.
- 2 The Applicant was then out of employment on reduction of the Establishment in 1862. In 1864 he appears to have been appointed an extra peon in the Amn Commissioner's office, which appointment he says he lost on reduction of the Establishment in 1866. Subsequent to this he says he had been seeking for a permanent footing but without success. He was employed as a Batta Peon from 7th August 1867 to 30 July 1869 when he was struck off the roll for non-attendance. Consequently he applied to this Court for Pension and thereupon the present Application has been made in consideration of his long service ^{in the office} in which he last served having been removed to Madras.
- 3 The Principal Sudder Amn's Court at Coimbatore was not abolished in 1862, but in October 1863. The Copy of the order under which the Applicant was thrown out of employment on reduction of the Establishment is herewith sent.

J. Virenda Raju, formerly a peon in the Madras Arms Const. at Comblattore was discharged on the reduction of establishments in 1862 after a service of upwards of thirty years.

He was therefore then entitled to a compensation allowance of Rs 2.8.0 per annum under the Government of India Financial Resolution dated 11th December 1863. N. 12574, but he does not appear to have applied for any retiring allowance until the present year, or six years subsequent to the latest date fixed for the reception of applications in such cases.

It appears however that while he has been constantly endeavouring to secure employment he has from time to time obtained employment of a temporary or non-qualifying nature, and under these circumstances N. 12574, Governor in Council is pleased to overlook the delay that has occurred in the submission of an application, and to grant to J. Virenda-Raju a compensatory allowance of Rs 2.8.0 per annum for his service of 32-10-24 payable from the date of his application to the District Judge of Comblattore.
