Cuddapah Subordinate Court
3rd December 1873.

From,
The Subordinate Judge
Cuddapah

To
J. H. Woodroffe Esqr.
Acting District Judge
Cuddapah

Sir,

With reference to your letter under date the 31st October 1873, I have the honor to submit the following explanation on the points noticed by the Deputy Accountant General in connection with the application for Pension made on behalf of B. Streeramulu Naidu, late Head Writer of this Court:—

1st What was the cause of non-appearance of the applicant's name in the annual Return of 1st May 1856, either as Acting 2nd Writer or as permanent 4th Writer? The name of one E. T. Taylor was shown in it as 4th Writer, and the post of 2nd Writer in which the applicant is shown in the Register of application to have acted from 7th April to 22nd July* 1857) marked vacant.

*not June

This Return is missing from the Records, but it is clear from the Pay Bills & Acquittance Rolls of that year that Streeramulu Naidu on the date mentioned was permanent 4th writer and Acting 2nd Writer. E. T. Taylor was Acting 4th writer during the time, Streeramulu Naidu had acted as 2nd Writer.

2nd Have the services of the applicant been verified from either the Pay Bills or Acquittance Rolls of the Zillah Court Cuddapah and Sub Courts of Cuddapah & Bellary.

The Applicant's services have been verified as per remarks in the Application

Register herewith sent.

Streeramulu Naidu entered the Sub Court as permanent 4th writer on the 16th September 1843, and during the time he acted as 2nd writer he had a lien on his permanent appointment of 4th Writer.

3rd Has the applicant on all the occasions he acted retained a lien on his permanent appointment as 4th writer?

The Medical Certificate was left with other Records in the Bellary District Court, from which Court it has been obtained and is herewith transmitted.

4th Why was the medical Certificate of applicant's unfitness for further service upon which only the applicant can apply for pension not submitted?

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Statement taken on oath from Medavaram Butchaya of Cuddapah, a Pavurohit (Family priest)

Q. Do you know Strirammlu Naidu?

A. I knew him. I knew him well. He is dead. I was his Pavurohit (family priest).

Q. When did he die?

A. At the commencement of Shasti on the night of Magha Bahula Panchami of the year Prajotpatti (corresponding with the 29th February 1872). I know the fact well. I took a note of it. He was formerly Head Writer in the Subordinate at Cuddapah.

* My letter to Subordinate Judge dated 23rd July 1873. Memorandum from Subordinate Judge dated 20th idem.

1. I beg to submit for the favorable consideration & disposal of Government Copy of my letter to the Subordinate Judge of Cuddapah & his memorandum in original in reply thereto noted in the margin * relative to the arrear of pension due to my deceased father B Streeramulu Naidu.

2. From the above papers it would appear that a sum of Rs 35-„-„ was due to my father on the day of his demise, and I have requested the Subordinate Judge to obtain the orders of Government for disbursing the same, but I was informed in reply that "no pension was sanctioned by Government."

3. I beg now to state that Clause 3 Section 82 of the civil pension code published by the Government of India under date the 10th January 1872 treats of such cases and directs that the arrear should be paid to the heir of the deceased

4 My father actually retired from the public Service & died when the Register of application for pension was almost prepared but the application was stopped on hearing of his death, probably under the impression that it was unnecessary.

5 I am unable to understand on what principle the Subordinate Judge declined to interfere on my behalf on the face of the positive order of the Supreme Government to the contrary above referred to.

6 Under these circumstances I respectfully beg that the Government will be pleased to direct the Accountant General to pass the pension of my father for the period of one month he lived after retirement, and do Justice to my claims.

Sir

1. I beg to inform you that my father the late B. Streeramulu Naidu was held the office of Head Writer in your Court for a period of 12 years, retired on the 31st January 1872. The total period of his Service on the date of his retirement amounted to 28 years, and he was thereby entitled to pension equal to one half of his average Salary for 5 years preceding that date. He has also prepared the register of application for pension at Bellary before he left for Cuddapah.

2. But owing to the misfortune of myself and others that were hanging about him for protection he died at Cuddapah on the 29th February 1872 at 12 P.M. and put an end to our further hopes.

CERTIFICATE AND REPORT OF ACCOUNTANT-GENERAL.

CERTIFIED that (~~subject to the remarks below recorded~~) qualifying service in {~~inferior~~ superior} grades has been duly proved for — 27 — years — 2 — months and 26 — days; and that an Invalid {pension ~~gratuity~~} not exceeding Rs. 35 - per mensem — , is admissible under Section 56 (c) of the Civil Pension Code. The calculations have been duly verified. The applicant was certified by the surgeon to be unfit for further service on the 27th January 1872, but he was retained till 31st Idem; consequently the moiety of pay drawn by him for 4 days from the 28th should be recovered from the arrears of pension which should commence from the last mentioned date instead of from the 1st February following.

The District Judge in his letter No. 51 dated 17th October 1873 to the address of the acting Under Secretary to Government states that Kristnasawmy Naidoo the son of the late Head Writer appears entitled to the arrears of pension due to his late father-
