I do not remember in what year I was first entertained in the Poldio Service. When Mr J. J. Thua was Assistant Collector at Nizapataun he appointed me as a Police Peon of Pindadi Zana on a salary of Rs 10 per mensem. I held that post about 7 ~~or~~ years & was then transferred to Nizapataun as a Police Peon on Rs 10 per month. I was afterwards retrans-ferred to Pindadi Zana.
 I was one year in Nizapataun After I went back to Pindadi Zana

I remained on the old Police Establishment for less than a year, I was then transferred to the new Police.

Before Mr. J. J. Thomas came the said appointment. Mr. Elair appointed me as police peon of Kadapa District. I cannot tell in what year or how many years ago I got that appointment.
I held it about 11 months and was then dismissed for having mis-delivered a letter.
I was without employment for 3 years and was then employed by Mr. J. J. Thomas as stated above.
I was never fined or suspended or dismissed except on the one occasion above mentioned. Through the whole length of my service on the old Police Establishment was about 10 years. I will prove my statement by Pampani Ramudu now living in the Collector's office and Santhalapalli Gurayya peon on the Collector's Establishment.

There are several others who know my services - they are at a distance.

I have heard the above witness and admitted it was correctly written - are near to each other. I cannot tell how many years ago - Mr. K. K. P. Collector of this District appointed him as a Police peon of Pannapani Taluk on Rs 14 per month. I was then District Officer in the District Record room. I cannot tell how many years Pannapani was in Pannapani Taluk.

I do not know where he served afterwards - or how many years he served on the old Police Sta-
