With reference to my letter to your address c 4th 398 of 8th September 1874, forwarding an application for Pension for Mr James Clark the Manager in this Office, I have the honor to inform you, that the Services and characters entered in the Service book, correspond with the entries in the Office Register and that the substantive appointment he now holds was conferred on him on the 1st October 1862.

2 I must however point out, that Mr Clark was temporarily employed on other duty, as 1st class auditor in the Military Pay Examiner's Office, from 2^d November 1866 to 16th May 1867, the salary of the appointment was $200 per month. His services as such are not shown, under a separate heading, as that period is included in the service of his substantive appointment.

3 The application is unaccompanied by any Indian certificate in reference to Government Recordings & D. 824 of 5th Decemr 1872, the present application is at Mr. Clark own request find considering that he will be ~~about~~ 60 years of age in November next and that of late he has been complaining

FROM THE DEPUTY ACCOUNTANT GENERAL, TO THE GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS,

To The Superintendent of Stationary Fort Saint George.

Went your Office application for Pension on behalf of James Clark.

The undersigned has the honor to request explanation on the following points:—

How the service of the applicant in the Stationary Office from 1st October 1862 was verified, as nothing is traceable regarding that period in the enclosure referred to in the Column "How verified" in the 2nd page of the application.

Why the applicant is shown in the Service Book to have been acting 1st class Auditor Stationary Pay Examiner's Office from 2nd November 1866 to 16 May 1867, while in the same statement and pay abstract of the Stationary Office for April 1867 he appears to have joined the office on the 18th and drawn full pay for that date and availed himself of 6 months leave from 1st June on loss of full pay.

The Service Book is herewith returned for want of signature of the present Head of the Office in the Columns 9 and 12 and it should be retransmitted duly filling in the omissions marked in pencil on these appropriate columns.

Mr James Clark, Manager of the Stationing Office, has secured considerable success in various capacities; and thus much pleasure in adding my testimony to that of the several Officers who have recorded their opinions as to his intelligence, trustworthiness, capacity for work, and zeal for the Public Service.

These incessantly find him all that could be desired, with reference to the duties entrusted to him; and not only strongly recommend him for advancement but shall be always glad to hear of his success in life.
