The Devaravallu Estate is not a "Native State" in the sense in which the words are employed in the Pension Code. It is a feudal estate; it was attached for arrears of Revenue, S. Jeyamathan was deputed under Act II, Madras, of 1864, to collect the rent on behalf of Government. His services were neither bona fide nor placed at the disposal of the Government.
The only bona fide remark in the Column is incorrect, for the Government did not hold the estate as a trustee.

FROM THE DEPUTY ACCOUNTANT GENERAL, TO THE GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS,

To THE Collector of Krishna.

VIDE your Office application for Service Reports on behalf of S. Tirumal Rao. for Verification.

The undersigned has the honor to request explanation on the following points:— Service of S. Tirumal Rao can be verified from the Annual Returns on record in this Office from 1869-70 as detailed in the accompanying Service Reports with the exception of the time passed on the State establishments.

With reference to the inquiry in the Collector's Office the undersigned begs to state that the pay to Rupees drawn up to 1 Jan'y/69 can be taken in calculating the average pay but not the pay from 8 July/72 to 28 March/73 as the Applicant did not ^{bring that period} contribute
- but 1/5th of his pay as required by Sections 34 & 35 of the Civil Pension Code.

From the accompanying extract of the Govt of India it will be observed that the contribution is indispensable if that is now recovered either from him or from the State the average calculation may be made on the ^{by average} 1/5th of his pay.

2. In reply, I am to state, that under the law, the reversionary pay (or pension) of the manager of an attached estate is a proper charge upon it. If it is thought technically wrong to make a separate or direct charge on that account, then the pay of the manager should be increased by the necessary amount, and he should be required to make over the prescribed contribution to the Government so as to hold the revenues of India harmless.
The attachment is rendered necessary by the default of the Zemindar, and there is no reason why there should be any consequent charge, present or deferred, upon the general revenues.

3. If therefore any Officer of Government is employed on such duty, the recovery on account of the contribution required under Section 35 of the Civil Pension Code should be enforced. In the analogous case of Ward's estate in Bengal, such recovery is regularly made.
