Read the following papers:—

From the Acting Collector of Chingleput, dated 27th October 1874, No. 75.

„ Deputy Accountant-General, dated 24th November 1874, No. 453.

ORDER THEREON, 16th December 1874, No. 734.

Under Sections 53, 56 (c) and 57 of the Civil Pension Code (2nd Edition), His Excellency the Governor in Council is pleased to grant to Doolipaty Authiseshiah, late Treasurer on the Establishment of the Collector of Chingleput, a superannuation pension of Rupees 62-8-0 per mensem to which he is entitled for his qualifying superior service of twenty-five years, two months, and twenty days, payable at Madras from the 21st August 1874.

2. It is observed that the Deputy Accountant-General struck out of the applicant's qualifying service the two months and twenty days during which he was under suspension pending the orders of the Board on his case, but as this period of suspension was immediately followed by reinstatement it should have been allowed to count.

Extract from the Proceedings of the Board of Revenue dated 2nd December 1852.

Collector of Madras dated 5th November 1852.

As represented by the assistant collector, the original Tamil papers relative to three distinct investigations are not forthcoming among the records of the Madras Collectorate.

2. These documents, it is reported, should have been in the charge of Calatee Rillay the Head Translator by whom the miscellaneous records in the native language were kept and that he must be made responsible for their loss.

3. There is no native Record Keeper on the Establishment, Each Head of Department

keeping its own records; and the miscellaneous among which the missing documents are classed, are said to be under the custody of the Head Translator, late enquiries however would tend to prove that the practice of the Cutikerry as to the due supervision of the records was generally lax, and that the late Sheristadan was in the habit of retaining public documents as long as he pleased without giving any strict account regarding them. As the case of the missing records the enquiries to which they refer more closely affect the late Sheristadan than any other officer now on the Collector's Establishment; and it seems not improbable as alleged by Calatee Pillay, that those papers were purposely retained. It was nevertheless the duty of Calatee Pillay to ascertain why the documents in question had not been returned, and the plea that they concerned the Sheristadan does not altogether altogether justify his omission to do so. There are no grounds however for supposing that he was a party to their abstraction and it is this consideration that operates with the Board in not noticing his neglect further and in permitting him to retire on the pension to which his age and past services recommend him.

4. Audeshashiah will immediately return to his duties under the Collector of Chengleput.

5. The Collector will report to the Board what arrangement he would propose to supply without additional charge to the Government, the want of a hat Record Keeper.

Ordered that the following Endorsements be passed on Petitions.
