Certified that I have carefully examined Kolluru Venkatachalam Pantulu, son of Kolluru Ramanah Pantulu, a Vernacular clerk in the Collector's Office, Ganjam. His age is by his own statement 54 years, and by his appearance about 64 years.
I consider Kolluru Venkatachalam Pantulu to be completely and permanently incapacitated for further service of any kind, in the Department to which he belongs, in consequence of constitutional debility and impaired vision, is almost toothless, is also subjected to chronic Rheumatism.
His incapacity does not appear to me to have been caused by irregular or intemperate habits.

A succinct statement of the medical case of Kollur Venkatachalam Pantulu, a Vernacular Clerk, Collector's Office Gaujam.

Has had little or no treatment beyond Tonics, as he appears old and worn out.

Sir,

In returning as requested your Despatch - No. 10 dated the 15th ultimo, together with the Service Book therewith received, duly signed, I have the honor to inform you that the post of Civil Head Quarters attached to the Senior Assistant Agent's Office in which B. Venkataratnam acted from 1st September 1856 to 30th November 1857, and in which he was afterwards confirmed, originally belonged to one S. Ramaraju; pay attached to the Principal & Assistant Agents office, would appear to have been transferred to each other's posts. As Venkatachalamappa having however applied for leave without taking charge of his own post, Mr. Venkatachalam was appointed to act for him on full pay and continued to do so until confirmed on the 1st December 1857.

2. Meanwhile As Venkatachalamappa and P. Surigamarayana Patrudu filed their Remonstrance in 30th pay each, appears to have been transferred to the Junior and Principal Assistant Agents office respectively, As. Shanmugam having been ordered to act as Guardian of the Parlatimery zemindari in lieu of the original Guardian who was suspended without pay and finally removed from that post.

3. As. Shanmugam as Guardian, and R. Venkatachalam as Joint Head Constable of the Junior Assistant Agents office, were confirmed in their acting posts on the 1st December 1857.

4. As R. Venkatachalam appears to have drawn the full pay of his post from the date of his Acting appointment until confirmed in December 1857, and as no portion of the pay of that appointment was allowed to be drawn by the original incumbent he would seem entitled to count his service as Acting Joint Head Constable towards pension. See Rule 2 under Section 17 of the Civil Service Code.

(a) Full pay of the appointment was allowed to the applicant during the time he was acting.

(b) He was confirmed in that appointment on the 1st December 1857, but the issue of his confirmation is silent on the subject of its retrospective effect.

I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your most interesting letter of the 10th inst.
 and in reply to inform you that the same has been forwarded to the proper authorities for their consideration.
