"Samboji Rao's resignation tendered to the Deputy Sasildar of Vanimbadi on the 3^d September 1873, was received in this office on the 6th ibid. On the 9th ibid, an order was issued to the Deputy Sasildar directing to send Samboji Rao to this office in order that he might be forwarded with a letter to the Killah Surgeon for examination. On the 13th September Samboji Rao appeared before me and was ordered to appear before the Killah Surgeon whose Certificate was received by me on the 23^d September."

I ordered the Deputy Sasildar to send Samboji Rao to me. Samboji Rao was not to be found at Vanimbadi and it was only after a 2^d order from me, dated 29th September 1873, that the Deputy Sasildar discovered his whereabouts at Athur and forwarded him to me. He appeared before me on the 13th of November on which day his identification was duly taken and his application forwarded to your office with my letter extra No. I, dated 13th November 1873.

3. The subsequent delay arose from the non-receipt of the applicant's Service Register and in obtaining the above explanation, which reached me only on the 1st Instant. I have pointed out to the Dy. Head Assistant Collector that the procedure adopted by him in this case has not been in accordance with
