I was first employed in the time when Mr. Bent was Collector, but don't remember the year, as I was then at Terore on Rs 3 1/2 per month. I was employed there for 5 (five) years & spent 6 years on the same pay & in the same employment at Chintalapooddy Chavay. I fell sick there, and on representation to the Collector he transferred me to Weegude Chavay on the same pay, where I stayed 5 years, till the abolition of the Sugar Establishment. I was then without employment for about one year, after which I was made a Revenue Peon in Pullapilly Talook on Rs 3 per month for 2 years, and after the establishment was withdrawn, I served in the (Hoogoor) Collector's Office for 5 years on Rs 5 per month. There was a break of five days between my service at Pullapilly and my joining the Hoogoor Establishment. After that I joined the Subrendy Camp at Jaggampet, and remained in that till the new Municipal Police was formed, where I joined, & have been in it ever since.

November 1874.

I have the honor to forward.

Syad. Khassim's affidavit in reply to the Deputy Accountant General's query -

2 He says there was no break whatever between the periods mentioned by the Deputy Accountant General. The break that occurred was after the abolition of the Sayer Establishment and was was nearly as long as the Deputy Accountant General surmises. The applicant tells me that in his former affidavit he stated the break to have been for 1 year only as he had no employment of any kind for that time, but that in the other 5 or 6 years, he was given acting and temporary appointments. As such service is not eligible for pension, he did not mention it.
