Read the following letter from the Officiating Additional Under Secretary to the Government of India, Financial Department, to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort St. George, dated Fort William, 15th February 1872, No. 1150 :—

The Governor-General in Council has had his attention drawn to the Order of the Government of Madras, in the Pension Department, No. 228, dated 4th August 1869, declaring that Moochees in public offices who are required to bind books in addition to their ordinary duties are, if permanently employed, and in receipt of pay exceeding Rupees 10 per mensem, eligible for pension on the superior scale. His Excellency in Council desires me to say that, in accordance with the Orders of the Secretary of State, admitting bookbinders to the benefits of the Uncovenanted Service Pension Rules, only those persons can be admitted whose professional employment is purely bookbinding and connected therewith. A Moochee who occasionally does bookbinding in addition to his other work is not a bookbinder permanently employed, and accordingly he has no claim to be regarded a superior servant.

SIR,

With reference to your office letter dated 23rd Ultimo on the reverse, I have the honor to furnish the following explanation on the points therein contained.

Though Kondappa Raju is entered as Moochee in the annual Returns of 1st May, yet he was styled Moochee and Bookbinder in his History of Service, because, though only paid by Government as Moochee, he nevertheless was also willing to, and did, bind books in the Collector's Office without demanding or receiving any extra pay. The title "book binder" was omitted, through oversight, to be added to that of Moochee in the entries made in the history sheet after the 9th July 1861.

The applicant was recommended for Pension for his entire service on the superior scale under section 39 (2) as he was a book binding Moochee, & not a mere Duftary.
