PENSION DEPARTMENT.

No. 123.

FROM

THE HON. D. F. CARMICHAEL,
Secretary to the Government of Fort St. George,

To

THE SECRETARY TO THE GOVERNMENT OF INDIA,
FINANCIAL DEPARTMENT.

SIR,

I am directed to forward the accompanying memorial from S. Mutheyaloo Naidoo praying that he may be granted a pension in lieu of the gratuity that was sanctioned in November 1871.

2. The memorialist served in eligible grades five years, one month, and seven days, and in the Police for nine years, seven months, and fifteen days, and was granted a gratuity of Rupees 168, being the maximum allowable for his combined service. If, as stated by him, a period of four months spent by him on leave could have been included he would have been entitled to a pension of Rupees 9-2-3, being one-third of his average salary.

3. It does not appear that it was considered necessary to make any special recommendation in his case; but as he had also done upwards of four years' pensionable service in appointments in the Commissariat Department which he lost through resignation, His Excellency would now recommend that he should be granted the pension he seeks, amounting to Rupees 9-2-3 per mensem.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

FORT ST. GEORGE,
8th March 1875.

Secretary to Government.

Read again Proceedings of Government, Pension and Petition Department, 22nd November 1871, No. 558, and 26th May, No. 1062 of 1873.

Read also the following letter from S. MUTHEYALOO NAIDOO, Manargoody, Tanjore District, to L. A. CAMPBELL, Esq., Under Secretary to Government, Pension Department, dated 18th February 1875.

I beg respectfully to enclose, herewith, a memorial addressed to the Right Honorable the Viceroy and Governor-General in Council, touching my claim to a pension, and to solicit that the same may be forwarded to its address with such support as you may be pleased to give to my prayer.

To THE RIGHT HONORABLE THE VICEROY AND GOVERNOR-GENERAL OF INDIA IN COUNCIL.

The humble memorial of SALEM MUTHEYALOO NAIDOO.

RESPECTFULLY SHOWETH,—That memorialist served the State for a period of twenty-one years, eight months, and two days in all, in the Commissariat, Revenue, and Police Departments, and was at length rendered physically unfit for further service, and sought a retiring pension at the hands of the Madras Government.

2. That the Madras Government were pleased to admit memorialist to a mere gratuity of Rupees 168.

3. That this adverse decision was owing to his continuous service for a one-third pension having fallen short by three months and eight days.

4. That this short-fall of service was due to memorialist having been compelled to avail himself of four months' leave in the year 1863.

5. That, in deciding against his claim to a pension, the Madras Government have not regarded the fact that the actual period passed by memorialist in the service of the State was over twenty-one years.

6. That the Madras Government have, in the exercise of their power, overlooked a similar deficiency of continuous service in cases* where the actual service has exceeded the period entitling to pension on the score of the uniform good conduct of the applicant—a consideration which is not wanting in memorialist's case, as copies of testimonials hereunto attached will sufficiently prove.

7. That memorialist begs to mention, for the information of your Lordship in Council, that when he was serving as a Tanickarran of Sea Customs on a salary of Rupees 8½ per mensem, a grade not eligible to a pension and between which and the higher grade carrying a salary of Rupees 14 (which brings the holder within the scope of the Pension Rules) there is an intermediate grade to which is attached a salary of Rupees 10½, he was promoted at once to the higher position on a salary of Rupees 14 as a reward for meritorious conduct, and while holding the latter appointment, memorialist was twice deputed to perform the duties of a Deputy Tahsildar. Rule 13 of the Pension Code provides that the whole of the service in virtue of which pension is claimed must have been passed in an eligible grade, but claims barred by this rule will be especially considered if promotion from an ineligible grade was bestowed as a reward for meritorious service or for good conduct. Memorialist humbly submits that his case falls under the scope of the section of the rules, inasmuch as his promotion was a reward for meritorious service, and if the provisions of the rule in question be applied to his case the effect will be to transmute his ineligible service of one year, one month, and ten days as service counting for pension. But all that memorialist wants is but three months and eight days, and this he begs may not be placed against his claim to a pension.

8. The memorialist having been unsuccessful in his appeal to the Madras Government for a reconsideration of his case, begs respectfully to lay it before your Lordship in Council, earnestly entreating that, in consideration of the small deficiency of three months and eight days of his continuous service up to fifteen years of the fact of his actual term of employment under Government extending over twenty-one years, and that the pension which he has earned by actual long service is now the only support he can look to, his prayer for a one-third rate of pension conceded to others similarly circumstanced may not be denied to him, a boon for which memorialist will ever pray.

(Signed) SALEM MUTHEYALOO NAIDOO.

No. 1.

The bearer, Mutheyaloo, acted as Hospital Conicopillay to the Left Wing of Her Majesty's 4th The King's Own Regiment on the march from Secunderabad to Kamptee. He was always most attentive, and exerted himself to the utmost in the performance of his duties. His arrangements gave the greatest satisfaction and were excellent.

No. 2.

I have much pleasure in testifying to the very zealous manner in which S. Mutheyaloo, Conicopillay, performed his duties, during the march of the Regiment under my command from Secunderabad to Poonamallee, which were rendered more difficult from my having in many instances deemed it advisable to encamp at a considerable distance from the villages from which the supplies were procured; these were always ready when the Regiment marched in and of excellent quality, nor was there a single complaint of any kind against him during the whole march.

As I understand from him that, although he has been frequently employed during the last five years in this capacity, he has no permanent situation, I have, therefore, taken the liberty of thus bringing him to your notice, in order that, should you deem fit, he may be taken on the strength of the Commissariat Establishment when a vacancy occurs.

No. 3.

This is to certify that S. Mutheyaloo acted in the capacity of Head Conicopillay with Her Majesty's 63rd Regiment on its march from Secunderabad to Poonamallee during which time I had great reason to be satisfied with the arrangements he made. He was most zealous in procuring the requisite supplies, which was frequently attended with much difficulty owing to the Regiment encamping at a considerable distance from the villages in which they were procurable. I never had occasion to find fault with the supplies furnished by him, which were always extremely good.

No. 5.

I do hereby certify that S. Mutheyaloo, Hospital Head Conicopillay, was under my orders on the march of Her Majesty's 63rd Regiment from Secunderabad to Poonamallee, giving the greatest satisfaction in furnishing supplies for the sick although the encamping-ground was far away from villages where those comforts were procurable, since which he has been permanently employed in the same capacity. I can with certainty recommend him as an useful Commissariat servant, well deserving of his situation and of further advancement in the public service.

Remarks of the Deputy Magistrate Streenivassa Row.

The Police Inspector Mutheyaloo Naidoo of late has been doing well. He has been preparing cases personally so they were complete. I do not know what the other Inspectors are doing. Why have the preparation of cases generally been left to the Head and Deputy Constables. I would suggest that the Inspectors may be directed to attend to the preparation of cases personally, without leaving them entirely in the hands of petty officers. The Inspectors in general appear to be satisfied with distributing pay and see their Constables at work. This is not sufficient.

Deputy Magistrate.

Remarks of the Superintendent of Police.

MUTHEYALOO NAIDOO,

I am glad to see those remarks. Keep on doing well.

This is to certify that the general character of late Inspector S. Mutheyaloo Naidoo was always good while he was under me. It was his misfortune that he was even promoted to an Inspectorship, for which he was not fit.

I never once had a suspicion against his honesty. He was willing enough to work, but he had not it in him.

is that he received Rs 21

Trichinopoly on arrival fe back to the Station pay of his

Rank R. 14 — that he again acted as Head Constable of the Regiment from 1st March to May 1850 during the absence from some cause & other of the Head Constable.— This is of course conjecture & therefore eminently unsatisfactory for the purpose required but it is probable that if he had been removed for misconduct there would be some record of it.—

To

The Right Honorable
the Viceroy and Governor General
of India in Council

The humble memorial of Salem
Moothialoo Naidoo

ully shewth

That memorialist served the state for a period of 21 years 8 months and 2 days in all in the Commissariat, Revenue, and Police Departments, and was at length rendered physically unfit for further service and sought a retiring pension at the hands of the Madras Government.

2. That the Madras Government were pleased to admit memorialist to a mere gratuity of Rupees 168.

3. That this adverse decision was owing to his continuous service for a One third pension having fallen short by 3 months and 8 days.

4. That this short fall of service was due to memorialist having been compelled to avail himself of 4 months leave in the year 18

5. That in deciding against his claim to a pension, the Madras Government have not regarded the fact that the actual period passed by memorialist in the service of the state was over 21 years.

6. That the Madras Government have

have in the exercise of their power overlooked a similar deficiency of continuous service in cases where the actual service has exceeded the period entitling to pension on the score of the uniform good conduct of the applicant a consideration which is not wanting in memorialist case as copies of testimonials hereunto attached will sufficiently prove.

7 That memorialist begs to mention for the information of your Lordship in Council, that when he was serving as a Jamcharmun of Sea Customs on a salary of Rs 8½ per mensem; a grade not eligible to a pension and between which and the higher grade carrying a salary of Rs 14 (which brings the holder within the scope of the pension rules) there is an intermediate grade to which is attached a salary of Rs 10½, he was promoted at once to the higher position on a salary of Rs 14 as a reward for meritorious conduct and while holding the latter appointment memorialist was twice deputed to perform the duties of a Deputy Tashildar. Rule 13 of the pension Code provides that the whole of the service in virtue of which pension is claimed must have been passed in an eligible grade, but claims barred by this rule will be specially considered if promotion from an ineligible grade was bestowed as a reward for meritorious services or for good conduct *. Memorialist humbly submits that his case falls under the scope of the section of the Rule inasmuch as his promotion was a reward for meritorious services and if the provisions of the Rule in question be applied to his case the effect will be to transmute his ineligible service of $\overset{y}{1}-\overset{m}{1}-\overset{d}{10}$ as service counting for pension. But all that memorialist wants is but 3 months and 8 days - and this he begs may not be placed against his claim to a pension.

8 The memorialist having been unsuccessful in his appeal to the Madras Government for a reconsideration of his case begs respectfully to lay it before your Lordship in Council earnestly entreating that in consideration of the small deficiency of 3 months and 8 days of his continuous service up to 15 years of the fact of his actual term of employment under Government extending over 21 years and that the pension which he has earned by actual long service is now the only support he can look to his prayer for a One-third rate of pension conceded to others similarly circumstanced may not be denied to him a boon for which Memorialist will ever pray.

Sir

I have much pleasure in testifying to the very zealous manner in which J. Mootteyaloo, Conicopillay performed his duties, during the march of the Regiment under my Command from Secunderabad to Poonamallee, which were rendered more difficult from my having in many instances deemed it advisable to encamp at a considerable distance from the Villages from which the supplies were procured, these were always ready when the Regiment marched in and of excellent quality, nor was there a single Complaint of any kind against him during the whole march.

As I understand from him that although he has been frequently employed during the last five years in this capacity, he has no permanent situation. I have therefore taken the liberty of thus bringing him to your notice, in order that should you deem fit he may be taken on the strength of the commissariat Establishment when a vacancy occurs

He was most zealous in procuring the requisite supplies, which were frequently attended with much difficulty, owing to the Regiments encamping at a considerable distance from the villages in which they were procurable. I never had occasion to find fault with the supplies furnished by him which were always extremely good.

Remarks of the deputy Magistrate Streenivasa Row.

The Police Inspector Moothealoo Naidu of late has been doing well. He has been preparing Cases personally so they were complete. I do not know what the other Inspectors are doing why have the preparation of cases generally been left to the Head & Deputy Constables. I would suggest that the Inspectors may be directed to attend to the preparation of cases personally without leaving them entirely into the hands of Petty officers. The Inspectors in general appear to be satisfied with distributing pay and see their Constables at work. This is not sufficient

My dear Mr. Sim,

It is not often I trouble any one with letters asking for something to be done, but the bearer, one Moottaloo Naidoo, has several times begged & prayed of me to give him a line to you.

He was once in the Police, & having been found physically unfit, was discharged with a gratuity; he makes out that he had only a few months, 3 or 4 I think, to make up his service to 15 years which would have entitled him to 1/3 pension: he adds that in several instances

men who had actually 6 &
even 11 months to serve, have
nevertheless got 1/3rd pension
& he now prays that Govt.
will re-consider his case
& grant his request.-

I would not trouble you on such a subject, but the man has been very unfortunate, while in the Ptin his conduct was always good.

Trusting you will not be vexed with me for
troubling you
