The Honorable Chief Secretary to Govt.
Humbly sheweth

That your honor's humble Petitioner most respectfully begs leave to state that she was entertained in the Chief Secretary's Department of the Govt. Office as a sweeper on the 1st August 1816, During this long period of 58 years, she discharged her entrusted duties with all possible care and assiduity to the entire satisfaction of her superior, now your honor's poor & helpless Petitioner, having been put out of her employment by the reduction & recently effected into the Department, states that she, fully relying on the Govt. for future aid, was passed her sad days up to this time in virginitly. Now your Petitioner is bereft of my assistance, having neither relatives, nor friends to care for in this old age of 71 years, and in consequence your honor's humble Petitioner most respectfully solicits the paternal favor and regard of your Honor in recommending her for full Pension that she may pass her few days with composure of mind, has her pay is, but 2 1/2 Rupees a month and less sum than that will not at all be sufficient for her poorest meal in this her old age.

For which act of benevolence, your humble Petitioner bound in duty shall pray the Almighty for your honor's long life and prosperity both in this world & in the world to come.

Hoping this her humble Petition will not but meet your honor's favorable approbation.

She begs leave to remain
Yours Most Obedient & humble Servant
X Jesudial Sweeper
