From the Inam Commissioner, dated 17th December 1874.

„ Deputy Accountant-General, dated 4th March 1875, No. 68.

ORDER THEREON, 18th March 1875, No. 149.

Under Sections 47 and 63 (a) of the Civil Pension Code (2nd Edition), His Excellency the Governor in Council is pleased to grant to Khadar Khan, late Peon on the Establishment of the Inam Commission, a compensation gratuity of Rupees (21) twenty-one, or three months' salary, to which he is entitled for his qualifying inferior service of seven years, five months, and twenty-four days.

2. The Inam Commissioner has recommended the grant of a gratuity of Rupees 18 at the rate of Rupees 6. He is referred to Section 48 of the above Code, from which he will see that the applicant should not receive less than he could have claimed if he had not accepted the appointment. The applicant is accordingly entitled to gratuity at the rate of Rupees 7, which is now sanctioned.

Official Memorandum

The undersigned has the honor to forward herewith an application for gratuity on behalf of Khaidarkhan, late Peon in the Inam Department, who was thrown out of employ in consequence of a reduction in the Establishment.

2. By the petition addressed to this office on the 9th July 1870, Khaidarkhan appears to have waited in the hope of getting permanent appointment all along, but seeing that he could not, & as he is now too old for work, applies for gratuity.

Department.

Official Memorandum.

With reference to the Memorandum from the Deputy Accountant General dated 19th January 1875, the undersigned has the honor to state that he is informed that Khadar Khan looks about 60 years of age. The man is not here at present, and even if he were asked, it is not likely that he would be able to give the date of his birth.

2. The Government having in their order dated 21st October 1872 n. 773, declared that service in the Income Department from 11th July 1872 would not reckon towards retiring allowance, it was thought that services in the Department previous to that date would reckon towards retiring allowance. & the applicant's service from 8th May to 31st October 1869 was accordingly taken into account.
