Testimonials of Mr. JOSEPH SMITH, 1st Class District Munsiff of Nellore.

Mr. Joseph Smith having applied to me for a character, I have much pleasure in stating that I have known him for several years, and have had every reason to be perfectly satisfied with his conduct. He is willing and attentive to his duties, and very regular in his habits.

MADRAS, October 3rd, 1844.

(Signed) W. DOWDESWELL.

EXTRACT from the Statement of the services of the Ministerial Officers of the Zillah Court of Nellore.

Mr. J. Smith, Foujdaree Translator, translates from Telugu into English with considerable readiness and accuracy of interpretation, and appears to work with steadiness and activity.

(Signed) JOHN WALKER,

Civil and Session Judge.

1st January 1846.

EXTRACT from a letter to the Registrar to the Court of Foujdari Udalt, under date the 9th August 1850, reporting the escape of 16 Convicts from work, armed with weapons, &c., and the immediate re-apprehension of 10 at a distance of about 10 miles from Nellore.

4. Mr. Joseph Smith, Foujdari Translator to the Zillah Court with singular devotedness, put himself on horseback and rode after the Prisoners.

10. At present I feel fully satisfied that the shooting of the two Prisoners that are dead, and the wounding of the others were clearly justified by the occasion. The Jailor and Mr. Smith in vain tried to persuade them to lay down their arms and surrender, nor could they with all the Peons and others with them succeed in bringing them to a final stand without coming to blows up to night-fall, and had they not then resorted to violence, it is probable I think that the whole would have escaped.

13. The five Peons from whose custody the Prisoners escaped appear to have followed close upon their heels for some distance. But from my knowledge of the ground on the other side of the Nellore tank, I am inclined to believe that if they had not been pursued by the Jailor (Mr. John Green) and Mr. Joseph Smith on horseback, they would have been able completely to outstep the Jail Peons and conceal themselves in the low jungle there, before the Peons sent by the Magistrate could have come up, and in the darkness of the following night the whole might have escaped.

(Signed) J. WALKER,

Session Judge.

(True Extract.)

(Signed) F. H. CROZIER,

Session Judge.

I have the most unfeigned pleasure in giving Mr. J. Smith of the Court, this testimony of what I know of his character. I have during the nine years I have been here, heard Mr. Walker and Mr. Irvine often mention him as a most willing and attentive person and wished for an opportunity to serve him. Mr. Irvine particularly said that he was a very quick and true translator, that he had got through the most intricate cases in an incredible short period. I have the highest opinion of Mr. Smith and greatest respect for himself and family.

(Signed) J. M. JACKSON,

Zillah Surgeon.

October, 1853.

I have great pleasure in giving Mr. Smith a certificate of my view of the way he has conducted his business during my acting at Nellore for five months, he has conducted the English Correspondence of the Court with ability and industry.

Ag. Civil and Session Judge.

NELLORE, October 13th 1855.

It will be observed, Mr. Smith is a public Officer of 18 years standing, that he underwent a successful examination before the Court of Sudder Adalat for the high and important position of Munsiff, and I am enabled after a 7 years' residence here as Judge of this Court to express a very favorable opinion of his zeal, close attention to his responsible duties, his qualifications and excellent knowledge of the Regulations and Rules of Procedure, as also to state the high sense I entertain of his personal character.

To THE REGISTRAR TO THE COURT OF SUDR ADALUT, Madras.

SIR,

Mr. T. RHENIUS, Inspecting Postmaster of the Division, and Mr. SMITH, District Munsiff of Nellore, as candidates for the appointment of Deputy Collector, the offer of nomination having, I may observe came from myself, i. e., been made to them—as parties who, at once, occurred to me, to be thoroughly suited for the responsible office in question, as regards that assured rectitude of conduct, upon which his Excellency lays such stress—whilst, as men who have, respectively creditably served the Government for a series of years, in various capacities, I at the same time felt there to be every reasonable prospect of their being fully equal to the efficient discharge of the duties involved by the proposed incumbency.

6. Mr. Smith has himself furnished complete detail, as to his past career and present position, in the accompanying enclosures. He appears to have been 18 years in the public service—and to be now 38 years of age. His certificates will testify the high character he has always borne in the estimation of those best competent to form an opinion of such. I have personally known him for many years, and believe him to be a thoroughly upright conscientious man—well meriting the amount of confidence involved in the conferring of an appointment of the nature now in question.

I have, &c.,

The only minor fault personally regretted with respect to Mr. Smith's office is his coming to the office of Department of Justice, 1860 (Ed. H. Smith) as a result of his own choice. He has the highest of character and the highest of office. Have formed a very high opinion of Mr. Smith in consequence of his high character and the high office. 19 Aug 1867 C. H. he ought to have been over the conduct of the ministerial servants of his Court and the consequence is that the High Court have ordered his retirement on pension on the 27th May next.
 Since my appointment here in 1872 I found him anxious to improve and to learn his work, and he certainly is a hard working man. He should be judged according to the standard of his young days, and not that which obtains in the present time.

1. Mr Smith was appointed Acting District Judge on the 21st March 1852 and continued on the 25th December led to the entry of the whole term as Acting being made new Rules, but he comes under the old Rules Section 61 Clause 3 of the Civil Service Code. "Acting Judges" (under October 29, 1850 may count service under the Old Rules.

Mr Smith entered the Service in 1842 and was appointed Judge on 21st April 1857. Under the old Rules therefore (Jan 24 1831 Sec 5 Clause 3) he is entitled to pension of
