Pongasami haideu jamadar in the Collector's Office at Sinnerully is one of the most respectable & useful men of his class that I have met anywhere - I was very much pleased with him, & am sure any other collector will be equally satisfied with him.

I have much pleasure in recording my testimony to the willing manner in which Daffadar Pongasami haideu & Palaniandi Pillai, as well as the whole of the Peons or the Collector's Establishment have worked during the two years I have officiated as collector of the District. I have never seen a better or smarter set of Peons.

C. Eden's letter to Board of Revenue dated 13th Decr 1889 No 156 1. I have the honor to report for the information of the Board of Revenue that on the arrival of the Strimigatam Salug Baidal at the Nagar Treason on the evening of the 18th ult. a bag which ought to have contained 500 Rs was found missing. On the circumstance being reported to me, I lost not a moment in making a strict examination of the Baidal and his band under whose charge the Baidal had been forwarded & from what transpired on that occasion, considered there were grounds to throw strong suspicion on the Cavalgars who had actually carried the bag & the same night despatched Rangasamy Naicken the Head Constable of the Collector's Office with a party of Dalayats to apprehend all the Cavalgars employed in bringing the Baidal. 2. Rangasamy Naicken with some other expeditions that the Party who committed the theft had not time to make away with the stolen bag & its contents which comprised 2 Rupees only has been recovered & was found by Rangasamy Naicken in the possession of the Head Constable of the Carrier Cavalgars. 3. The Parties engaged in this theft were after investigation forwarded to the Court of Circuit. 4. This is an occasion of this nature that the Services of an active & intelligent man of Rangasamy's description is particularly valuable & to his promptitude & adroitness & the assistance which he rendered from the Head Cavalgars named Naamunthi, Ramadai & the other men are almost entirely owing the recovery of the 498 Rupees. Should there be deemed it desirable in every point of view, that the conduct of these individuals should be rewarded & have under Section X Regulation No 18 of 1882 conferred on Rangasamy Naicken a present of 50 Rs & on the above mentioned three Head Cavalgars a present of 10 Rs each or in all 80 Rupees for which if necessary I solicit the sanction of Government may be obtained.

Abstract Translation from order issued by Mr. E. P. Thompson to the Treasurers under date the 23rd October 1840. Pay to Jangmadas Rungasami Naik Ken as reward of 120 Rs for his services in apprehending on the 3rd April 1840. 60 notorious thieves the murderers of Ruchanmal Singh who were for a long time evading warrants that were issued against them. Copy of Collector Mr. J. Silver's letter to Board of Revenue dated 10th March 1860 No 92. With reference to the Proceedings of the Board of Revenue dated 7th December 1859 No 4554, communicating the decision of Govt that the exemption of persons in public employ from the examination test was intended to apply only to those above the grade of a peon, I have the honor to request to be informed if the Head Foreman of the Peons on the Collector's Establishment would be considered to come within the exemption above quoted. 3. The Foreman is a highly trustworthy man who has been offered promotion by former Collectors. He has acted as Police Officer & has been also employed in both General Revenue & Criminal business, but I am doubtful if under the above rule he could now be promoted without being required to pass the examination test although at the same time I should consider him as being above the grade of a peon & consequently coming within the exemption quoted. (me esp) Rungasami Naik has served under me for 8 years as Nazir Daffadar and has performed his duty efficiently & well until incapacitated by old age for further work. (Signed) R. K. Buckle Collector
