Gratuities.

Read the following papers :—

From R. SMITH, Esq., District Engineer of Nellore, to Colonel G. W. WALKER, R.E., Secretary to Government, Public Works Department, Fort St. George, dated Nellore, 15th December 1874, No. 90.

I regret to have to report that one of the Nellore-Anicut lascars was carried through the undersluices, on the evening of the 13th instant, and drowned. The body has not been found, and fears are entertained that it will not be recovered, as there is a right fresh in the Pennair.

2. The deceased had immediate charge of the loading and unloading of one of the ferry-boats engaged in carrying stone for the rubble dam now under construction at the northern flank of the anicut, and at the time of the accident was in the boat en route to the anicut with a load of stone. On nearing this structure an empty boat appears to have fouled, or interfered with the working of the oars of the one deceased was in, and, during the confusion, it drifted into the strong current running towards the northern undersluice, became unmanageable, and collapsed immediately on striking that structure. Eight out of the nine hands on board escaped, and an attempt was made to rescue the poor lascar, but unfortunately without success.

3. As the lascar has left a widow and one son (a lad about fifteen years of age) unprovided for, I trust Government will be pleased to sanction a gratuity of Rupees 102 for them, as deceased as employed on the anicut for the long term of seventeen years. The amount of gratuity proposed is one month's salary for each year of actual service.

4. In conclusion, I have to add that no one is, in my opinion, to blame for the sad event referred to in this communication.
