Reply.

No Records show the fact of payments but from enquiries made of certain Salt servants in employ at the time it appears that the payment was made for the period from the 25th August to 30th September 1875 from the Superintendent's own pocket. The applicant does not seem to have ever complained that he had not been paid.

2. The applicant's widow Hussainie is his heir to receive the gratuity and it may be paid to her when sanctioned.
