No. 13.

Fort Saint George,
Accountant General's Office,

5 April 1875.

FROM THE ACCOUNTANT GENERAL

TO THE GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS,
To The Chief Secretary to Government

Pension Department

SIR,

With reference to Government order No. 170 dated 24th March 1875, I have the honor to point out that the grant of gratuity sanctioned therein is opposed to the provisions of the Civil Pension Code (vide Section 88 Rule 2) the man never having been actually discharged from service. I respectfully request therefore that the confirmation of Government of India may be obtained to the orders issued.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Yours obedient servant,

W. H. Smith
