Deposition given on Solemn Affirmation by Mahomed Sillamon an Inhabitant of Cocanada.

I Know Ahmud Ally now present. He applied for pension when he was a Daloyet on the Establishment of the Head Assistant Collector. His Services may amount to 40 years. He was first employed as a peon in the Coringa Sea Custom Department on 4 Rs.- I was then a peon on the Frontier Station at Nellapilly in the Coringa Division. I therefore Know his case. He was transferred from that post to a similar one in the Sayer Department at Rajanagaram on 4 Rupees per month.- The Sayer was afterwards abolished and he was left unemployed for about 6 months. He was then favored with a peon's post in the Amalapur Taluk on 4 Rupees per month. While he was holding this post, he was made a Dalayet on the Office Establishment of the Head Assistant Collector on 4 Rupees pay. It might be 25 years since his last appointment. He was never suspended nor Dismissed. I don't recollect the number of years he held each post in the Coringa Sea Custom Department, Sayer Department at Rajanagaram, and the Revenue Department of Amlapur Taluk. I am now an attender in the Cash Department of the Collector's Office. I have heard the deposition; it is correct.

Deposition given on Solemn Affirmation by Laul Saib, an Inhabitant of Cocanada

My Services were dispensed with about 2 years ago when I was attendar on the Establishment of the Head Asst Collector and I was granted pension - I know Ahmud Alli, who was struck off the Service while he was a Daloyet on the Establishment of the Head Asst. Collector - His Service in the Government Employ might be upwards of 34 or 35 years. I recollect that this man was first employed as a peon in the Sea Custom Department at Coringa on 5 Rupees, but I do not exactly recollect the number of years he served in that Department. - From this post he was transferred to that of a peon in the Sayer Department at Rajanagarum - I don't recollect how as police Peon of Amlapur from 27th April to 16th May.

In the Pay abstract of May 1847, his name was Shewn as Peon of long he held that post. Afterwards the Sayer was abolished - I recollect that he was without employ for about 2 or 3 months - He was then appointed as a peon on 4 Rupees in the Amalapur Taluk. While he was holding this post, he was transferred to a Dalayet's post on 4 Rupees on the Head Aſsistant Collector's Establishment when Mr. T. J. Knox was Hd. Aſst. Collector - Upwards of 20 years ago, he was appointed as Dalayet on the Head Aſst. Collector's Establishment. - Ever since he was Employed in the same Office - He was never suspended nor Dismissed. As I was the Duffadar of the Head Aſsistant Collector's Office, I know the whole details of his case. I have heard the deposition; it is correct.

Deposition given on solemn Affirmation by Ahmud Alli late a Dalayet on the Establishment of the Head Asst. Collector Godavery District.

When I was holding a Dalayet's post on 7 Rupees on that Office Establishment, I was struck off the Service being considered old. I recollect that my services in the Government amount to 41 years. During this period, I was neither Suspended nor Dismissed. I was first employed in the Sea Custom Department as a peon on 4 Rupees pay when Mr. Smith was Collector of the District. I don't recollect the year. I held this post for five years. — I was afterwards transfeared to that of a Sayer peon of Rajanagaram on 4 Rupees pay per month. I held this post for 5 years and 6 months. While I was in this situation, the Sayer was abolished, and I was reduced. I was without employ for about 4 or 5 months. I was afterwards employed as a peon under the Amildar of Amalapur Taluk - I held this post for $\overset{Y.}{3}$ - $\overset{m}{6}$ - I was then transferred to that of a Daloyet on 4 Rupees on the Establishment of Mr. J Knox when he was Head Asst Collector, which I held for upwards of 27 years, and from that time to the date of reduction I was on the Huzur Establishment. I drew my pay as Huzur Daloyet at 4, 5, 6 or 7 Rupees a month. I do not recollect how long I drew at each rate - I have heard the deposition; it is correct.

The Deputy Accountant General

In the Pay abstracts up to April 1839 that are forth coming among the records the name of Mahomed alli alias Ahmed Alli is not to be seen.

In the Pay abstract of April 1839, it was mentioned that he was appointed as Sea Custom Peon of Coringa Division from the 19 Idem. The man also stated that he was first appointed Sea Custom Peon.

As the name of the man was not entered in the Pay abstracts previous to April 1839, it must be considered that he was appointed only in April 1839.

Again his name was not found in any of the Pay abstracts from April 1844 up to 26th April 1847.

It seems therefore clear that he was without employ during that period. The pay abstracts of April and May 1847 shew that he acted as police Peon of Amlapur from 27th April to 16th May.

In the Pay abstract of May 1847, his name was shewn as Peon of

DVE

Amlapore Taluk from 17 [illegible]
The applicant is old and is unfit for further duty

I would remark that the evidence of Contemporaries or the applicant is only based on memory and when it is opposed to circumstances as shewn by records, I think it should not be taken into consideration at all.
