VIDE your Office application for pension ——— on behalf of P. Apparow Pillai - Godown Canacapillay - Abkarry Dept.

The undersigned has the honor to request explanation on the following points :—

Ansd 1. Why the applicant is shewn in the History of Service as Samprathy, Abkarry Dept, from 21 May '52 to 18 July '55 while from the Annual returns he appears to have been a counter of Cocoanut trees upto 17 July '55.

Ansd 2. Why the name of the applicant is not traceable in the Annual return of 1856, nor the appointments of goomastahs in the Abkarry Dept is traceable besides the one which was filled up by one Rungachariar.

Ansd 3. If the applicant was employed as goomastah on 14 Rs p.m. from 19 July '55 to 16 November '56 why the amount of pay drawn by him as such upto 30 April '56 was not included in the "Statement of pay actually disbursed from 1 June '55 to 30 April 56"

Ansd 4 The application is herewith returned with a view of column headed "how verified" in the 2d page being duly filled up.

5. English translation of the Takeed No 219 d: 12 Nov 1861 referred to in the application ~~may~~ should be furnished the same being required to be forwarded to Govt ~~along~~ together with other papers.

J R Corke
Dy Accountt Genl

1. The entry of the word "Samprathy" was a clerical error. The applicant was a counter of Cocoanut trees up to 17th July 1855 only.

2. The name of the applicant was perhaps not shown in the annual Returns of 1856 as he was a temporary gumastah from 18th July 1855 (not 19th July as entered before) up to 13th Novr 1856 (& not 16th Novr).

3. The pay drawn by the applicant is perhaps not shown in the returns ~~and~~ referred to as he was a temporary gumastah.

4. The entry "how verified" has been made in the statement.

5. An English translation of Taked No. 219 is enclosed.

Fort St. George.

SIR,

With reference to your Official Memorandum, dated 26th February 1875, No. 9949, I have the honor to return the Memorandum of the Deputy Accountant-General, dated 29th October 1874, with the reply thereto noted on the reverse - accompanied by other papers - connected with the Pension Application of P. Apparáo Pillai therein referred to.

2. The delay in submitting this reply was due to the fact that the question whether Apparáo Pillai should retire had to be reconsidered with reference to a petition from himself that he was fit for further service though he had passed his 55th year.

3. It has now been decided that though a Medical Officer, has certified to his fitness for service, he cannot be allowed to remain longer in the service without prejudice to the interests of Government.

I have the honor to be,

Abkarry Superintendant

Read your Urgee together with its enclosures No. 160 dated 2d Instant. In the case in which 2½ vises of jaggery were stolen on the 24th October last, ~~—~~ ~~—~~ one Narroyenan and another Muthummall the godown Maistry Chinnasawmy Pillay's Maid Servant who had stolen away some jaggery out of the godown, convicted of theft and sentenced to a Month's rigorous imprisonment by the Town Police Magistrate.

In the above case depositions were personally taken from Conoopillay

Apparow Pillay the Servants that were doing duty in the Godown.

Canocopullay Apparow Pillay deposed that as said above on the morning of 24" October last they were carrying jaggery from the old jaggery godown of the Distillery, he was getting the bundles down – standing out of the godown & Maistry Chinnasawmy Pillay and a Peon were within the jaggery godown and he, after sending all the bundles into the godown, locked it and went home. He knew not a word how, when, and by whom the rumoured theft of jaggery had been committed; from this it is clear that there is a vast difference in some of the principal points alluded to in your report as deposed by him in your presence and from the one, I took from him.

Maistry Chinnasawmy Pillay deposed that Moothummall who had stolen jaggery was his maid servant. She brought food to him on the 24th October last as she used to do, and after serving him food on the out side pial of the godown, she went into the godown to fetch hot water for quenching his thirst and then she made all possible haste to her house. It never gave room for him to suspect that she had taken jaggery and bundle it up in her waist.

On having examined the Sepoy Shaik Hoosain, he deposed that the above said woman never went into the godown after bringing water. From this it is very obvious that she should have stolen jaggery and bundled it up in her waist when she went into the godown to bring water

If the above said Maistry was not concerned in the matter he could have very easily detected the theft, for it would give ample suspicion, since she had taken a very large quantity of Jaggery to be bundled up in her waist; and he further said that if it had not been for the enmity that existed between the Sepoy Moothoo Veeran and some of the servants that were doing duty in the godown even this case could not have been detected.

Moreover for about 6 months there had not been distillation of superior kind of arrack from the godown. When the Conocopoly was questioned on the supposition that it might have been for the want of sufficient jaggery, he said that it was so for pány (melted jaggery) is mixed with the pure jaggery. Henceforward it was ordered that no pány (melted jaggery) should be mixed in the Distillation of arrack. After this when we tested the arrack no difference was found. Hence it was concluded that the practice of stealing away a part of the required jaggery was continued from a long time.

In the case in which there were rumours of some jaggery being stolen from the godown — though there were not direct proofs to show that the godown Conocopoly and the Maistry were concerned in the Keeption, yet it is clear that only Maistry was a partner in the action and the Conocopoly was neglectful of his duty to which he is responsible. It was also found that the godown peons Varathappen & Vengojee were also neglectful of their proper duties.

As Vencojee was already suspended once for 3 months for a certain fault in the Registration Dept. he very rightly deserves this time a fair dismissal. Though it is such yet we pardon so far as to suspend some & reduce the salaries of others of the following persons i.e. Vencojee, Varathen Godown Conocopoly Apparow Pillay and Maistry Chinnasamy Pillay as stated in the last para of the Takeed and you would do so accordingly.

The Sepoy Shaik Hoossain Saib deposed that as Moothammall who had stolen away Jaggery was allowed to go into the godown by the high officials in the Department he was unable to detect the case. His vain excuses without attending to his particular duty properly are not in any way satisfactory and therefore you will issue a strict order to the effect that he should be very careful in his Official duty in future.

Arrangements.

The Godown Conocopillay Apparow Pillay on 14 Rs pay shall be reduced and transferred to Pallaveram godown conocopillay's duty on 8¾ Rs pay and one in the latter godown shall be promoted to that of the former. Chinnasawmy Pillay shall be suspended for one year. After the expiration of that time any suitable place that may then fall vacant shall be given to him and Kistnasawmy Modely shall act for godown place and Peon Vengogee shall be suspended for one year and Varathen for 6 months. You may appoint any of the thrown out of Govt. employment for their places and enter the same in the Pay abstract book and you may restore suspended person to their appointments after suspension time is over.

12th November 1861.

Query 1 - Reply - The entry in the history of Appa Rao Pillay's Service that he was acting Salt Shivisinda from 1st December 1849 to 20 May 1852 is a mistake. The individual was acting up to 24th October 1850 after which date he was confirmed in that post.

Query 2 Reply Was confirmed in the post of Salt Shivisinda. He had no lien on the post of Thotavary Sampratty.

Query 3 Reply Was transferred to the post of "Counter of cocoanut trees" without any reason being assigned, as will be seen from the enclosed copy of the Takeed sent to him and its true translation.

CERTIFIED that (~~subject to the remarks below recorded~~) qualifying service in {~~inferior~~ superior} grades has been duly proved for 18 years 9 months and 11 days; and that a superannuation {pension ~~gratuity~~} equal to 1/3 of his pay not exceeding Rs. 5-0-0 per mensem, is admissible under Section 57 of the Civil Pension Code. (The calculations have been duly verified.) The certificate of the Head of the Office referred to in Rule 2 of Section 53 of the Code is given against item No. 4 on the 3 page of the application. It will be seen from the last para of the enclosed letter from the Collector No 53 dated 4th March 1875 that the Collector is decidedly of opinion that the retention of the applicant in service is prejudicial to the interests of Government though a Medical Officer has certified to his fitness for further service.

The delay in the submission of this application until October 1874 has been explained in Deputy Collector's letter No. 1535 dated 12th October 1874 which accompanied this office report No. 49 of 3rd December 1874 and the further delay is explained in the accompanying letter from the Collector.
